LIFE REFLECTIONS

Curtis Lee Garrison Jr.

Curtis Lee Garrison, Jr. was blessed to be born to the union of Curtis Lee Garrison, Sr. who preceded him in death and Josie Lee Garrison on November 25, 1974, in Chicago, Illinois. The family relocated from Chicago, IL to Jackson, MS in the early 1980's. At an early age Curtis carried a gift of making his friends and family members laugh. Curtis would later attend Northwest Middle School and Callaway High School where he found his love for music. He received many nominations as class favorite, quad-drummer in the Callaway Chargers Marching band, and the "most funniest" award amongst his classmates. He would later become a truck driver who traveled all around the world.

He departed his life to be with the Lord on Friday December 6, 2024. Curtis will always be remembered as a husband, father, brother, uncle, grandfather, cousin, and a friend.

Curtis leaves to cherish his wonderful memories, his wife: Lisa Harper of Pickens, MS; his loving children: Cennica Scott of Jackson, MS, Curtis Morton of Chicago, IL, and Jakayla Robinson and Jaylin Robinson, both of Jackson, MS; sister: Tina Harris of Vaughan, MS, Jimmie Wells (Tommy Wells) of Jackson, MS; aunts: Marva Hines and Dianna Barton; uncles: Earnest Morton and Murray Morton; grandchildren: Steven Scott of Jackson, MS and Carter Morton of Chicago, IL; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

I'M FREE

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey
we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely
and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things
we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.*
