Bradley Tyson Buck was born on Saturday, November 28, 1992 at St. Anthony's Hospital in The Pas, Manitoba to Peter & Annie Buck.

Brad lived all his life on Opaskwayak, where he went to school at Joe A. Ross. Brad was the second oldest of his siblings. He enjoyed cooking for his family and friends, whether it be barbequing or family get-togethers. He was always asked to make the soup!! If you had his soup you would know why lol. He learned how to make his own pizza dough, home made bread and biscuits. He taught his sister Summer how to cook. Brad enjoyed watching his favorite team Winnipeg Jets with his dad and sometimes his mom, he always hung up his Jets flag on the window. He would always say, "One day they're going to win the cup!" He always wanted to see Metallica in concert, he got his wish when they came to Winnipeg. Which his friend Marty Moore helped him get a ticket. He also got to see Black Label Society & Megadeth. Brad and Dexter used to love to jam out. They called themselves Upward Gun Blast. Brad loved to cook and he was good at it. On his spare time he always helped his mom with his dad.

Brad started working in landscaping with the late Ron Constant, Ron Jr and Harley. He also worked at the Otineka Mall as a custodian for a couple of years, the Beautification crew for one summer, a cook at John and Jessie's and at the Kikiwak Inn. He worked at Joe A Ross & OLC as a custodian and then back to work with Ron's Landscaping with Ron Jr. and Don.

Brad was a kind caring person who always had time for others, he had a good sense of humour. He enjoyed playing practical jokes on people, especially on his friends. He loved spending time with his only son Landon.

Brad will be greatly missed by his parents; Peter & Annie, sisters; Jennifer (Bert) Constant & Summer, but mostly by his baby sister Summer as they were close, son Landon Wilson, his best friends; Don (The Con) Constant, Dexter Sinclair, Beatrice MacIver, Harley Ducharme, Dana and Edgar Ballantyne and his Godchildren; Adriana Lathlin and Kennedy Wilson-Head, and all his family and friends.

Bradley passed away Friday, October 3rd, 2025 at St. Anthony's Hospital at the age of 32.

Bradley is survived by his parents Peter & Annie, sisters; Jennifer (Bert) Constant and Summer Buck. His son Landon Donovan Wilson. Aunties; Madeline Lathlin, Louisa Lathlin, Carrie (William) Partridge, Emma
