

TO MY BROTHER

There were so many things we could have shared if time was on our side. Through I know that you're gone, I can still feel you near. I'll be missing you and can't wait to meet you in heaven

Love you always
Your Sisters and Brothers

OBITUARY

John Thomas Adams (The Hammer) was born August 11, 1946 to the late Reverend John and Joan Adams. On November 8, 2018 God dispatched an Angel to call him home from labor to reward. John accepted Christ at a young age. He was baptized at St. Paul A.M.E Church

John graduated from Taft High School. After high school, John attended the United States Marine Corps. He also became a certified welder. He loved fast cars, such as the Mustang; and he also liked to play pool. He was a longtime fan of the Cleveland Browns.

He leaves to cherish his memory; longtime mate, Barbara Wheeler; his daughter Bernadette Johnson, Devon Adams and John Adams III and his stepson; his brothers, Robert (Josie), Donald (Michelle), Ronnie, Paul and Mark (Chrissy).

John was preceded in death by his brothers, Barry and Steve Adams; five sisters, Joan, Nadine, Julie Sr., Dorothy and Diane (Bobby); and a host of relatives, nieces, nephews, and friends.
