

Isaiah 41:10

*"So do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you;
I will uphold you with my righteous right hand."*

Acknowledgments

On behalf of our entire family, we wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to all who have shown us love, compassion, and support during the passing of our beloved Bobby.

Your comforting words, thoughtful gestures, and presence—whether near or far—have been a source of strength and comfort in our time of sorrow.

We are deeply touched by the flowers, cards, meals, prayers, and the many ways you have shared in honoring Bobby's memory. Your kindness has reminded us that we are surrounded by caring true friends, and for that, we are truly thankful.

May you be blessed for the comfort you have given us.

With sincere appreciation,

Loving sisters

Linda, Kate, and Marie

Obituary

Robert Henry Jacob Coroi, "Bobby", a cherished loved husband, brother, and friend to many throughout his life, passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, February 14, 2026.

Bobby was the devoted husband of Dianne Kay Miller, with whom he shared countless memories and cherished every moment they had together until her passing on November 28, 2016. Their time together was filled with joy, companionship, and love that was evident to everyone around them.

A proud and loving brother, he leaves behind his three sisters: Marie, Linda, and Kate; and one brother Russell each of whom he adored beyond measure. He was the best brother and uncle, supportive, caring, and always ready with a listening ear and loving guidance.

Bobby's brother, David Wayne Coroi, was more than just his brother; he was his best friend. From the moment David came into the world, he took on the role of guardian with pride. He was not just a big brother in name. He was a constant source of encouragement, laughter, and love.

He taught his little brother how to dream big, how to stand tall, and how to find joy in the smallest things in life. Their bond was built on shared adventures, inside jokes, and the kind of understanding that does not need words. Even when life pulled them in different directions, that connection never faded; it only grew stronger.

Though he is no longer here with us, the love he poured into David lives on. It is the lessons he left behind, the courage he inspired, and the memories that will forever warm our hearts. Their relationship was a gift, one that time, distance, or even death can never take away.

Bobby loved to walk and never came back empty-handed. He was a dedicated hard worker. Every challenge he faced became a steppingstone, and every glance of doubt became fuel for his light to shine brighter. He taught us that the measure of a person is not in how others see him, but in how bravely they rise above it. He showed us that true strength is not perfection.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Nellie Coroi, and his brother David. He is survived by his loving sisters, Marie, Linda, and Kate, and numerous extended family members, all of whom will carry his memory forward with love and gratitude.
