OBITUARY

Born in Dalvey, St. Thomas, Jamaica, West Indies, to Retina Lindsay and Philando Walker (both of whom preceded her in death) Vinetta lived a life marked by strength, grace, and quiet determination. She was a woman of deep integrity: poised, honest, content, and always straightforward in her communication. Those who knew her admired her unwavering character and her ability to persevere through any challenges that came her way.

Vinetta worked tirelessly throughout her life. She was a talented dressmaker with a gifted hand for detail and design, crafting beauty and utility in every stitch. Later in life, she dedicated many years as a courier at Westchester County Medical Center, where she was known for her reliability, professionalism, and kind spirit.

She leaves behind a loving family who will miss her dearly: her sons Howard Lee (United States) and Stafford Francis (United Kingdom); granddaughters Sabrina and Simone; daughter-in-law Beverly Francis; great grandchild Emilio Francis Hudson; sisters Lucilda, and Beverly; brother Llewellyn (Una); and a devoted extended family including nieces and nephews Joan(Charles), Janice(Carl), Anthony, Jillian, Maxine, Sharon, Joan B, Shernette, Nosley as well as her cousin Rose and dear friends Pearline, Lottie and Aubyn.

Her legacy continues through her cherished grand-nieces and grand-nephews: Keya, Shaun, Triston, Bryana, Jordana, Tiana, Kelly, Tiffany, Tracy, Tatjana and Titania, as well as a host of family, friends, and neighbors who were touched by her wisdom.

Vinetta will be remembered not only for her hard work and elegance but also for her quiet strength, her deep loyalty, and the love she shared so generously with those around her. She will remain in our hearts always.
