

Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can
and wisdom to know the difference.

Lying one day at a time,
Enjoying one moment at a time,
Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace. Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will. That I may be reasonably happy in this life
and supremely happy with Him Forever in the next.

Amen.

© Naturally Irish Gifts Ltd

Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
courage to change the things I can
and wisdom to know the difference.

Lying one day at a time,
Enjoying one moment at a time,
Accepting hardships as the pathway
to peace. Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make
all things right if I surrender to
His Will. That I may be
reasonably happy in this life
and supremely happy with Him
Forever in the next.

Amen.

© Naturally Irish Gifts Ltd

In Loving Memory of Joseph Thomas Carson

Joseph Thomas Carson was born on July 14, 1963, to Joseph A. and Darlene S. Carson in Fort Collins, Colorado. He attended public schools in Sundance, Wyoming, and Hardin, Montana. Joe was proud of his heritage and his country, and he was enrolled in the Sault St. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians. After leaving high school, Joe joined the United States Army. Following in the footsteps of his father; he was a hard worker and demonstrated many talents throughout his life. Joe worked in the woods as a logger, served as a ranch hand, truck wash, and took on various odd jobs across the country until he became disabled. Joe regularly attended LifeSpring Methodist Church and Celebrate Recovery meetings in Sturgis, South Dakota. He cherished the outdoors and spent much of his summers camping, fishing, or working in the yard. He loved gardening and spent hours on the riding mower ensuring the yard was always manicured. Joe had a kind and generous heart, always ready to help others without expecting anything in return. He had a special love for animals and was affectionately called "the dog whisperer." Joe was taken from us suddenly on Friday, January 16, 2026. He is survived by his siblings: Carol A. Carson-Hull, Michigan; Gary L. Carson (Denise) of Washington; Kathy J. White (Ron) of South Dakota; Kevin J. Carson (Diana) of Montana; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends. He was preceded in death by his father Joseph A. Carson; his mother Darlene S. (Peters) Cayton; his brothers Terry A. Carson (Justine LaBlanc), Richard N. Carson, and David J. Carson; his sister Judy M. Cayton; his nephew Charles Wood, his nieces Michelle Seymour and Shyla Cayton; his great-nieces Angel Duvall, Kassidae Carson and Aylssa Reardon, his great-nephew Brendon Carson, and Brother-in-law Scott Hull. His family wishes to thank everyone for their thoughts, love, and prayers. Joe was deeply loved and will be greatly missed.

In Loving Memory of Joseph Thomas Carson

Joseph Thomas Carson was born on July 14, 1963, to Joseph A. and Darlene S. Carson in Fort Collins, Colorado. He attended public schools in Sundance, Wyoming, and Hardin, Montana. Joe was proud of his heritage and his country, and he was enrolled in the Sault St. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians. After leaving high school, Joe joined the United States Army. Following in the footsteps of his father; he was a hard worker and demonstrated many talents throughout his life. Joe worked in the woods as a logger, served as a ranch hand, truck wash, and took on various odd jobs across the country until he became disabled. Joe regularly attended LifeSpring Methodist Church and Celebrate Recovery meetings in Sturgis, South Dakota. He cherished the outdoors and spent much of his summers camping, fishing, or working in the yard. He loved gardening and spent hours on the riding mower ensuring the yard was always manicured. Joe had a kind and generous heart, always ready to help others without expecting anything in return. He had a special love for animals and was affectionately called "the dog whisperer." Joe was taken from us suddenly on Friday, January 16, 2026. He is survived by his siblings: Carol A. Carson-Hull, Michigan; Gary L. Carson (Denise) of Washington; Kathy J. White (Ron) of South Dakota; Kevin J. Carson (Diana) of Montana; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends. He was preceded in death by his father Joseph A. Carson; his mother Darlene S. (Peters) Cayton; his brothers Terry A. Carson (Justine LaBlanc), Richard N. Carson, and David J. Carson; his sister Judy M. Cayton; his nephew Charles Wood, his nieces Michelle Seymour and Shyla Cayton; his great-nieces Angel Duvall, Kassidae Carson and Aylssa Reardon, his great-nephew Brendon Carson, and Brother-in-law Scott Hull. His family wishes to thank everyone for their thoughts, love, and prayers. Joe was deeply loved and will be greatly missed.