

Olga Marie Miller

Olga was born January 18, 1937, in Longmont, CO, to Claude and Maria Parra. Olga spent her youth in Colorado and South Dakota attending grade school at St. Martins Academy and high school in Cottonwood, SD. She received her certificate for nursing assistance in 1980.

She left some delicious recipes for spicy salsa, enchiladas, and tomato relish that will keep her memory alive. A gifted cook and homemaker, she warmed the heart of many folks throughout her lifetime with her culinary delights.

She loved the outdoors, spending time fishing, camping, hiking, and watching the stars. There are many who have cherished memories of outdoor adventure, which extends into 3 generations! She was an excellent cook, wonderful aunt, and loved her family. Olga touched a lot of lives. Her friends and family will miss her contagious zest for life, laughter, and amazing gift of unconditional love.

Olga Marie Miller, 78, Sturgis, died Thursday, February 19, 2015, at Sturgis Regional Hospital.

PSALM 121

I will lift up mine eyes to the hills, from whence cometh my help? My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon the right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.*

*Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the Love that we once shared
Miss Me - But let Me Go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
And a step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go*
