

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh, To love, to work or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me, God wants me now, He set me free.*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of our beloved extends sincere and heartfelt gratitude for the outpouring of love, prayers, and support shown during our time of bereavement. Your comforting words, floral tributes, acts of kindness, visits, phone calls, and messages have provided strength and encouragement beyond measure. We pray that God will richly bless each of you and continue to keep you in His loving care.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF THE^{SY}OLIAN

"THEO"
LLOYD JR.

JULY 1, 1995 - FEBRUARY 9, 2026

His STORY

Theolian "Theo" Sy Lloyd Jr., was born on July 1, 1995 and passed away February 9, 2026. Theo was born in Denver CO to Diana Yvette Ards and Theolian Lloyd Sr. Theo spent his younger years surrounded by family and friends, building the relationships and free spirit that would define his life.

In August 2009, Theo moved with his mother to Austin Texas, where he later graduated from Pflugerville High School in 2013. His mother Diana moved the family to San Antonio in 2014. Theo began building his future and discovering his purpose. He attended San Marcos Job Corps Center, where he earned his certification in Electrical work. He later joined UPS, quickly advancing into a supervisor role through his dedication and work ethic. While Theo valued hard work, he was never driven by material things. He was a spiritual explorer at heart. Theo was someone deeply committed to understanding life, faith, religion and the meaning of existence. He spent countless hours reading, learning and engaging others in conversations about God, purpose, and the human experience.

To Theo, life was never about chasing money but about seeking knowledge. Theo helped manage the family property in San Antonio before deciding to begin a new chapter in 2021. After a brief stay in Dallas Texas he made his way to San Diego California. A place that immediately felt like home. Theo loved the beach, the freedom of the ocean air, and the lifestyle that allowed him to fully embrace life as a nomad seeker. There he connected with people from all walks of life, often spending his days discussing spirituality, life and purpose, with anyone willing to share a conversation.

Theo's true pursuit in life was understanding the purpose of existence and helping others think more deeply about their own journeys. His gentle spirit, thoughtful conversations and open heart left an impression on many people he encountered along the way.

Though his time here was far too short. Theo will be remembered for his curiosity, compassion, wisdom and desire to live authentically. His memory will continue to live on in the hearts of his family, friends and all who were touched by his presence.

He is preceded in death by his Aunt Charisse Kay Ards and his grandfather Arthur Ray Ards. Those left to cherish his memory and mourn his loss include his loving mother Diana Yvette Ards and father Theolian Lloyd Sr. 1 Sister Shanita Yvette Lloyd and 1 brother Onyah Nkeze-Ards. 1 Niece Jaleiah Yvette Austin His grandmothers Birdie Louise Ards and Linda Faye Lloyd. 2 Aunts Katrina Lachell Lloyd, Sabrina Zerlinda Lloyd, 1 Uncle Billy Paul Lloyd and a host of relatives and many friends

You may be gone from my sight, but you are never gone from my heart.
