David Louis HOODYE

Minister David Hoodye was born on June 17, 1962, in Houston, Texas, at Jefferson Davis Hospital to Myrtle and James Hoodye. He was raised in the South Acres community of southeast Houston, Texas, where he developed the values of faith, family, and service that remained with him throughout his life.

At an early age, David accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and was baptized at Fiesta Missionary Baptist Church. He later rededicated his life to Christ and moved his membership to East Sunnyside Church of God of Prophecy. In 2004, he answered God's call into ministry and was ordained as a minister. He later continued his ministry at Church of God of Prophecy in Fresno, Texas, where he faithfully preached the Gospel and shared God's Word throughout his life.

David attended Ross Sterling Senior High School and proudly graduated with the Class of 1980. During his years at Sterling, he excelled in football and baseball and was also recognized for his artistic talent. His gift for art earned him a scholarship to Prairie View A&M University. While attending Ross Sterling, David met his high school sweetheart, Chandra Carter. Together they shared 46 years of love, faith, and devotion. From this union, they were blessed with two sons, Drake and Brice Hoodye. Following his education, David began his career with Brown & Root, now Halliburton. Through hard work, dedication, and commitment, he built a successful career and retired after more than 35 years of faithful service.

David also gave back to his community by coaching Little League Baseball with the Braves and youth football with the Giants. He enjoyed mentoring young athletes and took pride in teaching them the value of teamwork, discipline, and respect both on and off the field. Whether serving in ministry, coaching youth, or spending time with family, David believed in serving others. He was known for his quiet strength, kind spirit, and willingness to encourage everyone he met. His life reflected his faith, and his example left a lasting impression on those who knew him.

Minister David Hoodye was preceded in death by his parents, Myrtle and James Hoodye; his son, Drake Hoodye; his sister, Ida Hoodye; his brother, Bruce Hoodye; and his grandson, Brice Hoodye, Jr. He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife, Chandra (Carter) Hoodye; his son, Brice Hoodye (Danielle); his sisters, Lisa Hoodye and Cynthia Hoodye, both of Houston, Texas; his brother, James Hoodye; his grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, church family, former players, and friends. Minister David Hoodye will be remembered for his unwavering faith, his love for his family, his years of dedicated service, and the many lives he touched through his ministry, coaching, and everyday acts of kindness. His legacy will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

Message from his Wife-Chandra Carter-Hoodye

My soul mate, my husband David and I met at the age of 17, and we went on a date while we were riding in the car, his favorite song came on and oh, how he beguiled me with his beautiful voice. The words were like this, "at 17 we fell in love high school.

Sweethearts, love was so brand new, we took the vows of man and wife forever for life" I can still remember it, just like it was yesterday. That we came together and didn't Let go. We were friends before we were lovers. So, through our journeys, the good times outweigh the bad times we had so much fun. David always made me laugh and cry through the storms of trials and tribulations. Through this journey and this test of life, David always covered me and his family like the Lord says, the man is the provider, and I loved him for that, that, and though we went through A lot of situations, we still had 46 years of being friends of one another. We forgave each other quickly. I thank God for this time that he had given me with my husband, to God be the glory. He is with the lord our savior Jesus Christ, that's what he preached and prayed for just to suffer for Christ Jesus. Fighting for the Lord's paradise. David would say "just to be a greeter at the front gate will be good for him. David always showed love to everyone he met, telling them about the Lord. I thank God for a praying man of God. So, my love until we meet again, I Pray that God still let him cover the family, in Jesus name, unto the Glory of God,

Amen

Message from his Son- Brice Hoodye

To my Dad (AKA Papa Bear), I knew this day would come to pass when I had to let you go, so you could be at peace with the lord, I'm so proud to call you Dad. I have a lifetime of memories and experiences with you, but I know in my heart you are still right by my side, the lord says, to be absent from your body is to be in the presence of the lord. If you know my dad like I know him, he shouted all the way there. You taught me to be kind, when kindness was not there. You taught me Love, when love was nowhere to be found. You taught me to manage my money, because hard times are always just around the corner. You taught me to be a friend even though friendships don't last. You taught me to be a Father because everyone doesn't have one. You taught me about the Bible, because I needed to know who to turn to when times got rough. I can go on and on about lessons and the goodness of your heart. Just know that everything that you did on earth will last in our hearts until it's time for us to go down this same road. Love you MORE, Papa Bear. Until we meet again, see you later, NEVER GOODBYE.

-Brice

Tributes Of Love

To Our Beloved Brother

*A sister's love is a special gift,
One that time can never take away.
Though our hearts are heavy with sorrow,
We find comfort in the memories we shared.
Your love, strength, and support
Have meant more than words can express.
May God's peace surround you,
His grace sustain you,
And His love gives you
strength in the days ahead.
With love always,*

Cynthia and Lisa Hoodye

To My Brother, David

I still hear your laugh in the hallway like you never left at all. David, you were my first best friend, my little brother, and someone I could always count on. You carried life's hardest days on your shoulders and still gave your very best.

Though you're no longer here with me, you'll always be in my heart. Rest easy, my brother. A love like yours never ends, and neither will the memories we shared.

Until we meet again.

Love always,
Your Big Brother,
James Hoodye, Jr.
