Forever In Our Hearts

We didn't know that morning that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

FOREVER IN OUR Hearts

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Debroah Ann (Smith) Williams on February 16, 2025, at the age of 68. Debroah was born on July 22, 1956, in Cincinnati, Ohio. She was the daughter born to Beulah Lee Smith and Sherman Ralph Smith.

Debroah leaves to cherish fond memories, loving brother Sherman Ralph Waldo Smith IV, loving sister Kathryn Jacqueline Smith; three loving daughters, Jae Goodwin, Carrie Lucas and Anna Steele; a loving son Neil Smith; one son-in-law Aaron Steele; five grandchildren Trenton Westfall, Turner Westfall, Aaron Hayes, Zoe Steele and Ava Steele, eight great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Eulogy...

Debroah Ann (Smith) William, who was more than a mother; she was a friend, a mentor, a sister, a guiding light, and so much more.

One fondest memory of Debroah was all the time she spent in her garden. She had an incredible green thumb, and her love for nature was truly infectious. As she planted her flowers, her famous tomatoes, and so many other vegetables, her eyes would light up with joy and excitement. Those moments were a testament to her nurturing spirit and her ability to find beauty in the simplest things.

Debroah also had a remarkable talent for creating art and poetry. She would spend hour upon hour crafting beautiful works of art, her outstanding eye always seeing the beauty in everything.

As a dedicated nurse technician, Debroah devoted over 20 years to caring for others. Her compassion and kindness knew no bounds, and she had a special way of making everyone feel valued and understood. She was also an active member of our community, always ready to lend a helping hand and volunteer her time.

Her love for her family was unwavering. She always tried her best to bring the family together and create fun, memorable moments. Her wisdom and guidance have shaped her family into what they are today, and her legacy will live on through them all.

As we gather here to celebrate her life, we are filled with gratitude for the moments we shared and the love she bestowed upon us. Though she is no longer with us, her spirit will continue to guide and inspire us.

Thank you, Debroah, for being the incredible person you were. We love you and will carry your memory in our hearts forever.

Thank you
