Poem for Momma

My momma, the most beautiful girl in the world!
Thank you for your beautiful Life
Thank you for the Life that you Lived Thank you for teaching us the Love of God And his way and the importance to give.

Thank you for being a virtuous example Thank you for Loving strong Thank you for your encouragement, safety, and protection, and how to live healthy, long.
How to be a lady or man and walk with confidence, changing the tone of the room.
Oh beautiful mother you gave us
All you had to give...thank you for being you!
The best Mother in the Whole wide world
Rev. Princess Maggie Boatman-Shaffer

I hope I helped you live Strong I hope I helped you to endure With Love and laughter and fun, I pray you felt secure.
Your children love you, you've taught Us well...Now as you meet our maker, Thank God... ALL IS WELL!
– Lazet

Words for Maggie Boatman Shaffer

Mother, wife, Reverend Princess, First Lady, Proverbs 31 Woman, Queen, healer, and teacher.
And when she was unencumbered by any title, she was Maggie. Those that were blessed to have seen her broad smile and heard her hearty laughter, will never forget it. We will never forget you and your loving kindness.
All is Well Rev. Princess Maggie Boatman-Shaffer.
– Gregory Ramsey

And I will ALWAYS Love you...
– Michael

Thank you Mother for being the BEST MOTHER in the world. I will have your Love in my heart Forever.
– Sharon

Our Beloved Reverend Princess Maggie Boatman-Shaffer

A Proverbs 31 Woman.
Minister, Teacher,
Church builder, self-made Herbologist,
Business Woman,
Philanthropist, Gardener, Excellent cook, and one who loves to dance and enjoy Life!
Everyone wanted
Reverend Princess Maggie to be their Mother. So she had many children whom she loved and who loved her.

Maggie Margaret Linton was born March 16, 1926 to William & Mamie Linton in River Junction, Florida.
She was the 6th of 8 children, 7 sisters and one brother.

Maggie married Cannon Boatman Sr. at the age of 16, with an 11th grade education. And gave birth to her first child at 19 years old, Alma Mae. To this union 8 children were born. They moved from Pine Bluff Arkansas to Willow Run, Michigan where Cannon Boatman Sr. started C. Boatman Construction. Maggie was found on occasion helping to build the business by driving trucks and pouring cement with her husband.

After 26 years, their marriage ended and Maggie with now 5 children at home, went back to school,
finished high school and got her degree from the University of Detroit and became a kindergarten teacher.

Maggie became a Minister under the Ministry of Reverend
Dr. James Francis Jones, Founder of Universal Triumph the

Dominion of God.
When Maggie had a serious bus accident, and the doctors told her that she only had days to live, Prophet Jones healed her and told her that she would live longer than the doctors who told her that. And she did.

Maggie married Rev. Lord James Shaffer who succeeded Prophet Jones and she became First Lady of Universal Triumph the Dominion of God. As Maggie preached and taught, her Ministry in Wellness and Herbology grew.
With the help of God, She has helped heal many of illnesses & diseases through her knowledge of herbal teas and healthy eating.

In 1988 Maggie lost her beautiful beloved daughter Diane to a plane crash in Lockerbie, Scotland. And instead of blaming God, she honored God by building a new Thankful Center for Universal Triumph the Dominion of God.

Maggie departed this life December 29th. She was preceded in death by: 2 husbands and 4 children. Her husband Reverend Lord James Shaffer, Cannon Boatman Sr., her children, Alma Marie, Cannon Jr., Calvin and Diane.

She leaves to cherish her memories her children, Louise, Lazet (Reginald), Michael, Sharon (Anthony). Her grandchildren, Darren, Trezavant, Lorraine, Andrea, Tess Faye, Isaiah, Shadee, & Denise and a host of Great Grand children, nephews, nieces, and her special son Rev. Lord Gregory Ramsey and Prophet Banks and Universal Triumph the
Congregation.
