Dale Humphries, a beloved father, brother, and friend, passed away on April 29, 2025, at the age of 74 in Waco, Texas. Dale was not only committed to his career but also had a deep passion for life outside of work. He found joy in activities such as hunting and cherished the moments spent playing card games. A true conversationalist, he loved engaging with others, particularly during games of 42 where stories and laughter flowed freely. He enjoyed watching his boys play in sporting events and never missed an event. Above all, Dale held his family close to his heart, and his love for them was evident in all he did.

He is survived by his three sons, Allan Humphries, Jessie Humphries, and Chris Humphries, along with four grandsons and three granddaughters who undoubtedly brought him immense pride and joy. Dale is also survived by his brother Burl Humphries and his wife Bonnie, and his sister Gayle Arbuckle and her husband Donny.

Dale was preceded in death by his parents, Arnold Devohn and Wanda Lee Hendrix Humphries, his son Adam Humphries, and his sister Kathy Humphries. Their memories remain forever etched in the hearts of those who loved him.

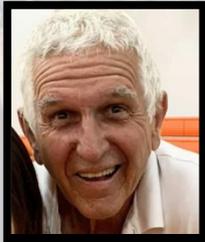

Dale Humphries will be remembered for his warmth, humor, and the deep love he had for his family and friends. His legacy will continue through the lives he touched and the memories he created.

23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*
