GOD looked around the garden,
And found an empty space.

He looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face. He put

His arms around you

And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful

For He only takes the BEST.

He knew that you were weary,
and He knew that you were in pain.

He knew that you would never be well on earth again.

He saw the roads were getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.

So He closed your weary eyelids,
and whispered

Peace be Thine.

Rose Ann (Adelman) Wollschlager was born on January 28, 1936, in Ortonville, MN. She was the daughter of Andrew and Susan (Vonderharr) Adelman. Rose Ann attended parochial school in Rosen, MN, through the eighth grade. She continued her high school education in Bellingham, MN, graduating with the Class of 1954.

Rose Ann worked as a nanny for area families, played organ for St. Joseph's Men's Choir in Rosen, MN, and Serenity Choir. She was united in marriage with James A. Wollschlager on April 16, 1955, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. They were blessed with ten children. They resided north of Revillo where they farmed. They purchased the home place in 1960.

Rose Ann was a dedicated farm wife and mother, showing her love in her Saturday baking and daily hearty meals. She tended a large garden and canned or froze her harvest, creating traditions and memories of the sweet corn process for grandchildren and great-grandchildren alike. She kept her children going "in the right direction." As the children became more independent, Rose Ann worked off the farm at the canning factory, Stearn's, and at Big Stone Cheese Factory for 21 years. She was a faithful member of Annunciation Catholic Church in Revillo where she played organ for 53 years and was a member of the Altar Society.

Rose Ann's husband, Jim, passed away in 2001. Rose Ann remained on the farm for ten years then made her decision to move to Milbank, SD, and has since resided.

Rose Ann enjoyed traveling with her sisters and friends to many places; her favorite place was Alaska. She enjoyed playing cards, especially with the Marietta Senior's Card Club. She loved her Thursday mornings with the Hardee's coffee club. Rose Ann enjoyed family holidays and attending her grandchildren's activities. She was a talented seamstress and was always patching jeans. She enjoyed music, especially polkas. She was an avid Minnesota Twins fan. Rose Ann enjoyed word searches and puzzles.
