

If You Could See Me Now

*If you could see me now, you wouldn't shed a tear.
Though you may not understand why I'm no longer here.
Remember my spirit, that's the real me.
I'm still very much alive, oh, if you could only see!
I've beheld our Father's face. I've touched my Savior's hand.
The angels all rejoiced as I entered the Promised Land.
Beyond the gates of pearl, I walk on golden streets.
I've touched the walls of jasper, dipped my foot in the crystal sea.
The beauty is beyond words, nothing can compare.
I've even seen your mansion; someday I will meet you there.
Allow Jesus to be your guide, His word will show you the way.
So, please, don't cry! We will meet again someday!*

Obituary

Joseph Fisher was born on January 27, 1936, in Washington, DC to Edward Vondell Fisher and Bertha Fisher. As a young boy Joseph learned the value of a dollar and hardwork. He often spoke of how he delivered groceries in his childhood wagon. Joseph attended school in the Washington, D.C. area. Not long after graduation he enlisted In the US Army. Joseph received an honorable discharge in 1971. Soon after he moved to Boston, MA where he met and married Bernice Fisher, from their union three children were born. Joseph was a Freemason and long-standing member of the Carver Grand Lodge on Talbot Ave in Dorchester, MA. Joseph worked for many years for the City of Boston/ Boston Public Library, He took great pride in his work. After many years of employment Joseph retired and he and his lovely wife relocated to Loganville, GA. Where they enjoyed 20 plus blissful years of retirement. Sadly, after 51 years of marriage Joseph's wife was called home to glory in 2019. Joseph remained in GA until 2022 when he decided to return to Boston, MA to live out his remaining years.

Joseph will be remembered as a loving husband, father, and a great provider. To know him was to love him. If he called, you a friend there was nothing he wouldn't do for you. He will be greatly missed by an who knew him.

Joseph Is survived by his three sisters Vivian Fletcher of Riverdale, MD, Gladys Ricks of Ft. Washington, MD., and Marion Carthan of Huntingtown, MD his three Children Alicia Armstrong of Atlanta GA., Annetta Fisher of Boston, MA and Joseph Fisher Jr. of Boston MA. Six Grand Children Devin Walker of Atlanta Ga, Martin "Trei" Kitchens III of Atlanta GA. Joseph Joshua Fisher Sr. of Boston, MA, Jaida Kassi (Kevin Kassi) of Havelock, NC., Harmony Fisher of Weymouth, MA and Jeremiah Armstrong of Atlanta, GA.
