

A letter from Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see:
If the sun should rise
And find your eyes,
All filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
The way you did today;
While thinking of many things,
We didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me,
As much as I loved you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.
When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart;
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.

His Life

Javarrus Jaquan Jeter, known to most as “Jay”, was born in Spartanburg, SC to Latonya Littlejohn and Rahim Jeter, on September 15, 1998. Jay attended Rocky River High School in Charlotte, NC, and was employed at Blaze Pizza. His favorite football team was the Carolina Panthers and blue was his favorite color. Jay’s goal in life was to be a business owner. At the age of 16, he accepted Christ while attending a service at The City Church in Charlotte, NC. He was a faithful member of The Relatives Youth Program.

Left to cherish fond and loving memories, along with his parents, are his sisters, Jada Jeter of Charlotte, NC, and Akyrie Jeter of Union, SC; brother, Elijah Green of Charlotte, NC; grandparents, Maretta and Manning Jeter of Union, SC; great grandmother, Vennie Mae Jeter of Union, SC; aunts, Angela Rice of Spartanburg, SC, Sadie Littlejohn of Jonesville, SC, Harriet Littlejohn of Union, SC and Denella Lindsay of Columbia, SC; uncles, Daniel (Alfreda) Lindsay of Spartanburg, SC, Andre Jeter and Manning Jeter, Jr. both of Union, SC; niece, Amirah Jeter of Union, SC; godmother, Crystal Dogan of Charlotte, NC; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Javarrus was predeceased by brothers, Jacob Green and Shyheim Jeter; grandmother, Leatrice Littlejohn; grandfather, Jack Thomas; and aunt, Marisha Jeter.

On May 13, 2022, Javarrus Jaquan Jeter transitioned in Charlotte, NC. He will be greatly missed by all who loved and knew him.
