

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.
I know how much you love
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.
When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you telephoned, perhaps you sent some food; perhaps you said a silent prayer that God might see us through. Perhaps you gave us a word of comfort, perhaps you made a donation, perhaps you rendered a service unseen at hand or from afar. Perhaps you traveled from miles away, but whatever you did to console our hearts.

The family of the late Mary Norman Louise Scott would like to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy shown during this hour of bereavement.
May God bless each of you.

Obituary

Mary Norman Louise Scott, 94 of Easton, Maryland, was called to her eternal home on May 6, 2023, after a brief illness at the Talbot Hospice in Easton. She was the youngest daughter of the Late Margaret Scott Walley and Norman Scott. Affectionately, Mary answered to several names: Grandmom Mary, Aunt Mary, NoWe, and Mother Scott. She was educated in Talbot County at the Historic Old Moton on Port Street.

At the tender age of 73, Aunt Mary decided to return to school to get her GED. She furthered her education by studying Computer Science. Always giving of her time, she volunteered at the neighborhood center and Operation Christmas alongside her son, Scotty. Aunt Mary was an avid baker who loved to bake cakes and other goodies. She also loved to spend time with family, especially when Diane would have family gatherings.

Mother Scott loved the Lord. She was a faithful servant of Mt. Pisgah, always lending a hand when and wherever needed. On June 16, 2012, she became a devoted member of Emmanuel Deliverance Center under the divine leadership of Apostle Juanita Wharton-Church, where she became a Missionary and Senior Church Mother.

Aunt Mary leaves to cherish her memories: one granddaughter, Shalonda Batson; great-grandchildren, Jaimont, Jonas, Sha'Carra and Carl, all of Killeen, TX; one brother, Walter Walley, Sr.; nieces; Beverly, Marcia, Diane, Stephanie, Bridgette, and Dawn; nephews, Ronnie, Rickey, Jonathan, and Devel; her church family; a special friend, Elaine Greene; and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Mary was preceded in death by her son, Lord Scott, Sr. (Sheldon); grandson, Lord Scott, Jr.; parents, Margaret Scott Walley and Norman Scott; stepfather, Percy Walley, Sr.; sisters, Minnie Lewis, Pauline Scott, Helen Walley, and Marian Kellum; and brothers, Percy Walley, Jr., and John Walley.

The family would like to thank Beverly for the special love and care given to Aunt Mary.
