

Afterglow

Afterglow I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done

A large, vertical poster for a "Celebration of Life" service. The background is a soft-focus image of pink and red roses. At the top, the title "Celebration of Life" is written in a large, elegant script font, with "LOVE & LEGACY" in a bold, sans-serif font below it. Two white doves are flying in the upper corners. In the center is a portrait of an elderly woman with short, curly grey hair, wearing glasses and a pink top. Below the portrait is a white ribbon banner with gold borders containing the name "Carmen Naomi Carter" in a script font. At the bottom, the service details are listed in a mix of script and serif fonts: "Saturday August 10, 2024", "St. Augustine & St. Martin Episcopal Church", "Celebration of Life Service: 11:00AM", "29-33 Lenox Street", and "Boston, MA 02118".

Obituary

Carmen Naomi Bolt Carter was born on May 22, 1933, in Boston, Massachusetts to the late Walter E. Bolt and Clara Bolt. She grew up in Boston with her parents along with her two brothers Walter Bolt, and David Bolt, and her two sisters Yvonne Brooks, and Charlene Francis both of whom preceded her in death. Carmen was the eldest of the five Bolt children. Ma went home to be with the Lord on July 21, 2024.

Carmen attended and graduated from the high school of Practical Arts in 1951. She was a faithful member of St. Augustine - St. Martin Church for many years. As time progressed, although she remained a loyal member to the church of St. Augustine - St. Martin, she attended Zion Temple Holy Church along with her daughter Stacey and son-in-law Jocko Tate.

She was married to the late Ronald John Carter in 1954. From this union she became the mother of two children, a son, Gary Carter who preceded her in death and a daughter Stacey Tate.

Carmen's first job was with The Gillette Company for several years. After she obtained a job with Polaroid Company as a camera inspector until her retirement in 1989. In her retirement years, she took a part time job at ABCD clothing warehouse as a salesclerk.

She loved shopping and looking her best. Her favorite thing to do was dine out with her daughter Stacey and her husband, Jocko. They often shared various outings together. Carmen along with her daughter Stacey and son-in-law Jocko celebrated many annual family and friend gatherings in honor of her late husband Ronald Carter. At these gatherings, she also enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren. Carmen also enjoyed seafood, feeding the birds and preparing home cooked meals. She looked forward to receiving meals from her grandchildren.

Prior to her passing, Carmen attended the Rogerson Adult Daycare Center. At the center she enjoyed spending time with her friend Stella Tate, while enjoying listening to music, doing crafts together and playing Bingo.

Carmen leaves her loving daughter Stacey (Jocko) Tate, two brothers Walter (Wilma) Bolt, and David Bolt. Four granddaughters; Kaylee, Genise (Kevin), LaToya and Cortney; four great-grandchildren Vanessa, Gary and 2 others. She is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and several very loving and devoted "special friends".
