

Don't Grieve For Me

Don't grieve for me, for now, I am free I'm following the path God lead for me. I took his hand when I heard him call I turned my back and left at all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play tasks. Left undone must stay that way I found that peace at the close of the day, if my parting has left a void, then fill it with remember joy, a friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss are, yes, these things I do will miss, be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish for you, the sunshine of tomorrow my life has been full, I've savored, much good friends, good times, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't length in it now with undue grief lift up your heart and share with me. God wanted me now, He set me free!

Obituary

Mr. Fred Battle transitioned to be with the Lord on July 25, 2025. He was born on November 11, 1946, to the late Henry and Mercie D., who preceded him in death. Originally from Macon, Georgia, he moved to Cincinnati, Ohio, in the 1970s to provide a better life for his family.

Fred loved playing cards with family and friends. He also enjoyed playing the lottery and visiting the casino.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Emma, and his brothers Leon, Lewis, Thomas, and Joe. His sisters, Lillie, Mary, Peggy, Cora, and Mary, also preceded him in death.

Fred is survived by many loved ones who cherish his memory, including his children, Gwen and Bridget; his sister, Dale; and his brothers, Larry, James, and Casey. He was a proud grandfather to Tiant and DeYeashi. He also leaves behind sisters and brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, other family members, and friends.
