The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my
soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Remembering…

Betty Jean (Langerman) Heinze died September 13, 2026, at Salina Regional Hospital.

She was born on November 26, 1930, in Ellsworth, Kansas. Betty graduated from Wilson High School.

She was united in marriage to her high school sweetheart Earl Robert Heinze on August 15, 1948. She was a homemaker, an excellent cook and loved working outdoors with Earl on the farm where they lived for several years prior to moving to Wilson.

She loved horses and puppies and gardening. She always grew and kept beautiful roses and flowers.

Betty and Earl were avid square dancers and belonged to County Cousins and attended dances for many years.

Betty's wonderful sense of humor and wit was a trait that many friends and family mentioned throughout her life.

She was a member of the Immanuel Lutheran Church and she and Earl were members of Service Circle. She was active in Circle. She enjoyed reading and was a member of a lady's reading club. She was also a member of a sewing group. Betty liked the competition for cards and was a member of a couple of local Pinochle and card clubs.

Following her husband's passing, she worked for several years at Wilson Nursing Home as an accounting manager and occasionally traveled for her company.

She enjoyed dancing and traveling and participating in community activities with longtime companion Gene Bland.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband, Earl, her parents, Irma and Dell Langerman of Wilson, Kansas and a host of many friends.

Survivors include her daughter, Rhonda Heinze McGaughy of Colorado Springs, CO; her son and wife, Steve and Cindy Heinze of Wilson, KS; her brother and wife, Duane and Linda Langerman of Belton, TX; grandchildren, Ramie (Ryan) Coffman, Kevin (Shelly) Heinze and Jordan Heinze; and great-grandchildren, Drake, Jayson and Myles of Topeka.
