Obituary

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.”

Revelation 14:13

Shelby Lee Miller was born on September 27, 1954, to Willie B. Miller and Earline Hickman Miller.

At an early age, Shelby attended Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church. Later in life, he became a faithful member of Calvary Apostolic Church, where he worshiped devotedly until his health began to decline.

Shelby was united in holy matrimony to Mary Ann Arterberry on December 31, 1975. From this union, three children were born: Melissa Miller, Felicia Miller Hickmon, and Shelby Lee Miller, Jr. Shelby was also blessed with a son, Christopher Kirk, born prior to his marriage.

Shelby was employed by Taylor Machine Works for over 30 years. Due to declining health, he later retired. After retirement, he enjoyed fishing, hunting, and spending quality time caring for and loving his family.

Shelby Lee Miller departed this life on December 27, 2025. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Mary Ann Miller; his parents, Willie B. Miller and Earline Hickman Miller; and one daughter, Melissa Miller.

Shelby leaves to cherish his loving memory one son, Christopher Kirk; two brothers, Willie B. Miller and Murphy Miller; two loving children, Shelby Lee Miller, Jr. (Alissa Morris) and Felicia Miller Hickmon (Randolph Hickmon); twenty grandchildren; eleven great-grandchildren; one sister, Edith Pearl Odom (Fletcher Odom); and a host of sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Our Dad

*You were our strength, our guide, our prayer,
A loving heart beyond compare.
Your hands worked hard, your love ran deep,
Your memories are ours to keep.*

*Though God has called you home above,
We feel you still through endless love.
Our dad, our hero, our forever friend,
Your legacy lives—this is not the end.*

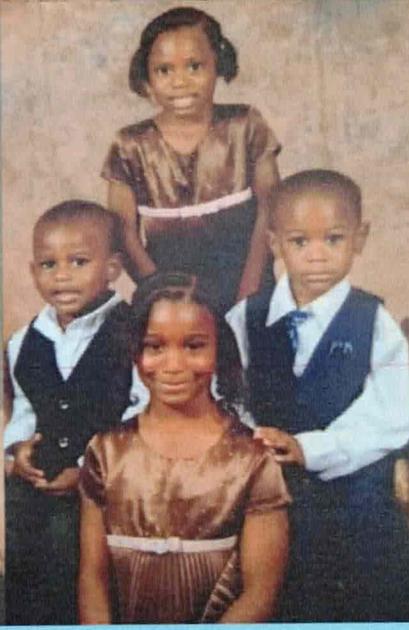

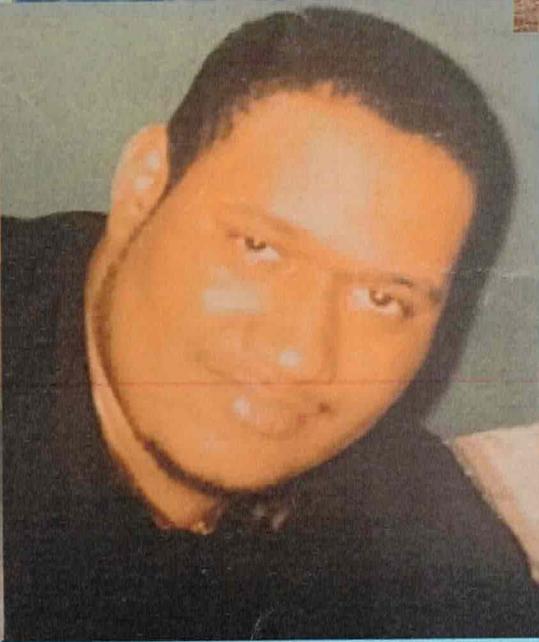

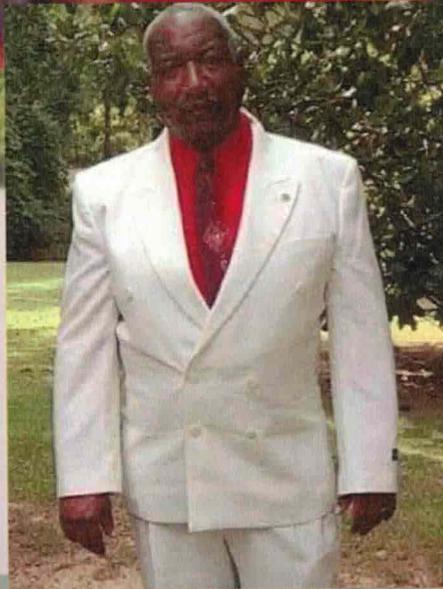

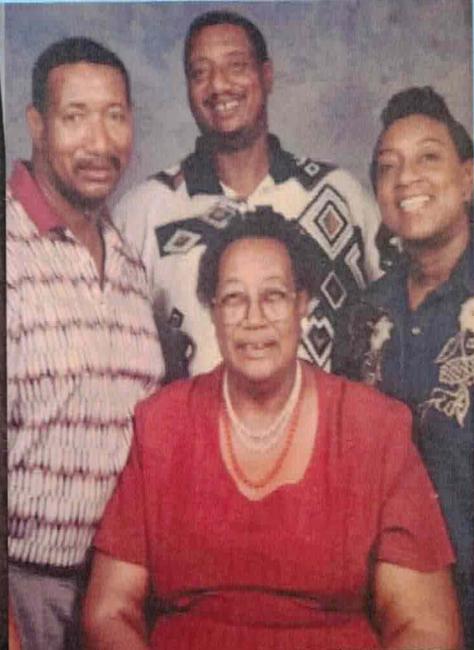

— Felicia, Shelby (“Bubba”), & Lesha

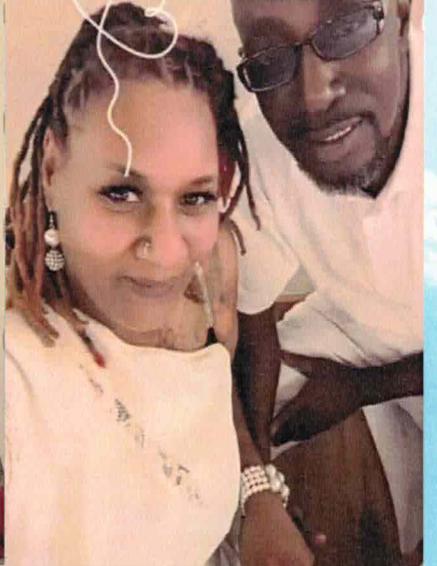

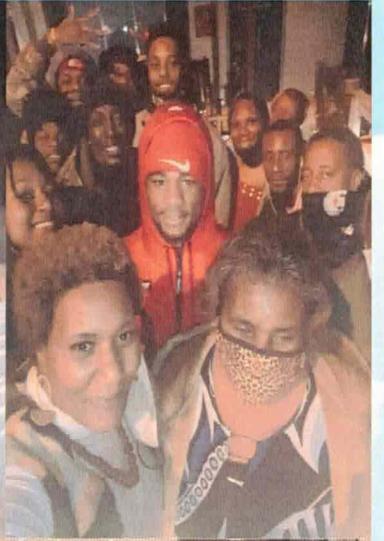

For My Brother

*God gave me a brother, strong and kind,
A precious gift I'll always hold in mind.
Through laughter and trials, through joy and pain,
Our bond of love will always remain.
Though you now rest in eternal peace,
My love for you will never cease.
Until we meet on heaven's shore,
My brother, I'll love you forevermore.*

— Your Sister
