…shed no tears. When it's time and I must go. Remember what you mean to me. I am sorry that I cannot stay. All my love you have always. As I leave it in your core. Don't shed a tear as I am there. It was time for me to go. ~Shed No Tears Flora Hedrick

Obituary

Jessie L. Buckley was born to the late William Buckley and late Sina Morise Buckley on July 29, 1955. He attended New Hebron High School where he played football.

He was joined in holy matrimony to Betty Sue Roberson on August 18, 1979. To this union, twin boys Omari and Tauri Buckley were born to complete their family of five children.

Jessie loved God and on a good Spring day you would find him sweeping the floors and singing gospel songs. He was a hardworking man, whom many would call a jack of all trades. He held several jobs, including a lineman with Southern Pine Power Company and a supervisor at Calvert Company.

He never met a stranger. Everyone knew "Jessie Buck".

Jessie was preceded in death by his loving parents William and Sina; sister, Lula LeJay; and daughter, Jenean Waites.

He leaves to carry on his memories, legacy love: a devoted wife, Betty Sue Buckley; four sons - Omari (Keneatha) Buckley, Tauari (Kalo) Buckley, Neely (Christina) Brewer, and Patrick Evans; three daughters - Kimberly Young, Shirley (Marvin) Sandifer, and Tillicia (Sedrick) Butler; two brothers - Billie Morise and Jay (Jean) Grey; one sister - Hattie (Homer) Quinn; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going." John 14:1-4

Tributes

Pop,

Saying goodbye to the one who held us down.

Saying goodbye to the one who has always been around.

Saying goodbye to the memories, both good and bad.

Saying goodbye but grateful that you were our dad.

Saying goodbye to a father, uncle, pawpaw, and so much more.

Saying goodbye to someone we will always cherish, love and adore.

Saying goodbye, wishing we had one more day.

Saying goodbye to the memories that will never fade away.

Saying goodbye, knowing that it's time for you to rest.

Saying goodbye, knowing you gave us all your very best.

Saying goodbye, knowing that one day this will be our fate.

Saying goodbye surely knowing that you will be waiting for us at the GATE.
