

Why Sorrow for Soul Set Free

Take comfort, in my departure,
It was my time to go.
God came to call me home,
From my pain and toil.

“Let not your heart be troubled”
Why weep? for a soul set free.
Heaven is my resting place,
God, preserved it for me.

No more worries for tomorrow,
My labor on earth is done.
My Life is bright and happy,
life in heaven has just begun

The angels came for me
I've arrived here, safe at last,
In heaven It's so peaceful
Here is not a shadow cast,

Take comfort and rejoice
The storms have ceased forever,
God wiped away all my tears.
My journey at last is over,

So please be happy for me
and try hard to be strong.
God shall hold you up,
In His loving and caring arm.

One day God will call you home,
forever your joy shall be.
and you'll know the reason why,
Why sorrow? for a soul set free.

"I've Come This Far by Faith"

Benjamin Herring, the son of Samuel and Bernice Herring, was born on March 7, 1943, in Madison, Florida. He continued to live there with his siblings in their loving, supportive, and Godfearing home and community until young adulthood.

Benjamin attended Madison County Training School where he was instructed in academic subjects as well as necessary life skills that prepared him for his successful life. After he graduated from high school, he enlisted in the United States Army and served a tour of duty in Germany.

Following his honorable military discharge, Benjamin returned to Madison long enough to meet his forever love and soulmate, Mary Williams. He relocated to Miami, Florida, but returned to Madison to marry her. The jubilant couple departed for their life together in Miami where they were later blessed to be the loving parents of Eric and Sybil.

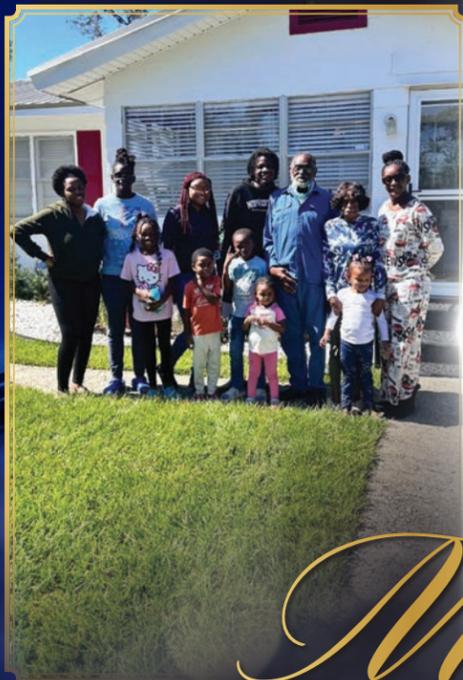

Benjamin was committed to properly taking care of his family. As a result, he created and became a successful business owner of B&E Pallet Company for 20+ years. During his retirement, however, Benjamin relocated his family to Madison, the place of his humble beginnings.

After living in Madison for a few years, Benjamin Herring's health began to fail. Then on Monday, February 2, 2026, he peacefully and quietly answered the Master's call for him to come on up to Bright Glory for eternal rest.

Loved ones who have Benjamin Herring's love in their heart will also carry his beautiful spirit with them forever. While they will miss him, they have faith in the promise that they will meet again. Among them are his loving and supportive wife of 60+ years, Mary Williams Herring of Madison, FL; faithful daughter: Sybil Herring of Madison, FL; loving siblings: Leroney (Marcia) Herring, Sr. of Miami, FL and Mildred (Tommie) Jonas of Madison, FL; grandchildren: Annette of Texas, Jeanette, Eric, Daijah, all of Miami, and Erikah of Madison; great-grandchildren: Skyler, Cody, Xander, Brielle, Nova, and Aliah; goddaughter: Aleshia Ridgeway of Alabama; along with many other sorrowing cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Cherished loved ones who have preceded Benjamin Herring in death were his parents, Samuel and Bernice Herring; son, Eric Herring; siblings: Samuel Herring, Jr., Leroy Herring, and Edith Herring Anderson.
