He is Gone

You can shed tears that he is gone
Or you can smile because he has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see him
Or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday.
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember him and only that he is gone
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Obituary

Marcus Menefield was born December 16, 1963, in Cincinnati, OH to the late Henry Louis Menefield and Kathryn (Woodward) Menefield.

Marcus graduated from Withrow High School and later received a certificate in Stationary Engineering from University of Cincinnati. Marcus had a long and successful career with Cincinnati Public School. He started as a custodian and advanced to position of Building Engineer. Marcus retired in 2018 after working at CPS for 30 + years.

Marcus exchanged wedding vows with Anita (Mason) Menefield in 1995 and together they raised two children. Marcus was a provider for his family. He taught his children many lifelong skills such as driving, cooking, and how to properly use tools. He was supportive of their hobbies by showing up to all of Kellee's basketball games and buying Jonathan art supplies. Marcus spoiled his children with love, and he often stated that he would do anything for them.

When Marcus was younger, he discovered a love for music that became a huge part of his life. Though he was great in many areas such as shooting pool or mastering the art of handyman tasks his true passion was being a DJ. Marcus aka DJ Menefield loved to DJ parties for his family and friends. If you needed a DJ for any event he was ready, willing, and able to spin for you. Music was his life! One of his favorite things to do was hang out on the back deck with music playing, laughter flowing, and BBQ grille smoking! Marcus loved cooking and was well known for his famous fried chicken. He had a deep affection for his family and friends, with whom he shared countless memorable moments.

Marcus departed this earthly life on Thursday, August 15, 2024. His legacy will live on in the rhythms of the tracks he spun and laughter that echoed the parties he hosted.

Marcus leaves to cherish his memory: children Kellee D. Mason and Jonathan T. Mason, brother Daryl Menefield, and sisters Evette Key and Karen Menefield, along with a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, relatives, and many dear friends.
