Alvina Nadine Cudmore, 92 of Gillette, Wyoming passed away peacefully surrounded by friends and family on April 16, 2025, at the Legacy Rehabilitation Center. Alvina was born on August 14, 1932, to Case and Elsie Zwart near Madison, South Dakota where she was raised on the farm with her 8 siblings near Howard, South Dakota. Alvina married Everett Lemme in the late 1940's and had five children, sons Milton, Martin, and Lonnie and daughters Barbara and Carol. She later remarried to Russell Cudmore in the mid 1960's and they had two children, sons Russell Cudmore Jr. and Roderick Cudmore. Later, the two adopted and raised their granddaughters, Nadine and Natalie. Alvina worked numerous jobs and had many hobbies such as macrame, baking, sewing, crafts and playing bingo. Alvina's most enjoyable hobbies though were making photo albums for all new babies and also making her famous sugar cookies, macaroni salad, potato salad and banana muffins. Alvina's most natural gift was being a caregiver to so many. She was happiest when holding a baby in her arms. Alvina's days were filled with many friends and family conversing over a pot of coffee or countless hours of conversations over the phone. She loved watching Andy Griffith and numerous game shows. Alvina will be remembered by her generous spirit, her selfless acts of kindness, her spunky, ornery and joking personality as well as her motherly love. Alvina is preceded in death by her father Case Zwart, mother Elsie Zwart, husband Russell Cudmore, brothers William Zwart, Henry Zwart, Robert Zwart, sisters Ellen Kwallek, Carrie Hauff, Francella Vickery, Nancy Roeman, sons Milton Lemme, Lonnie Lemme, Roderick Cudmore, daughter Barbara Lemme, stepsons Ronald Cudmore, Jerry Cudmore, Jim Cudmore, grandsons John Herrera, Clay Lemme, granddaughters Toshea Lemme, Tracy Lemme and step- grandson, Michael Cudmore, great grandson Dijon Tyrel Carter and great- great granddaughters Adeline Long-Bell, Taytum Marie Martell, and Aliana Maldnado, great-great grandson DeQuincy Zachariah King-Duke. Grateful for having shared her life are her sons, Martin Lemme and Russell (Lori) Cudmore Jr., daughters Carol Williams, Nadine (Damon) Decker, Natalie (David) Castle, step daughter Darlene (Bob) Sperling, sister Susan Jones, grandchildren Kelly Duke, Amber (Duane) Smith, Shannon Cortes, Chad Lemme, Tonya Chavez, Corey Lemme, Casey (Tracy) Lemme, Nicholas (Elizabeth) Lemme, Travis Jackson, Tyrone (Cheyenne) Jackson, Heidi (Craig) Campbell, Neil Sperling, Amy (Ryan) Williams, Brenda French, Jodi Somers, Mariah Stoterau, Jordan Wilson, Sondrae (Jacob) Spade, Ashley (Jeremiah) Zuraff and many great-great-great grandchildren as well as many beloved nieces and nephews.

Life Well Lived

A life well lived is a precious gift, of hope and strength and grace, from someone who has made our world a brighter, better place.

It's filled with moments, sweet and sad with smiles and sometimes tears,
with friendships formed and good times shared,
and laughter through the years.

A life well lived is a legacy, of joy and pride and pleasure, a living, lasting memory our grateful hearts will treasure.
