

You'll Live Always

It's true we bring nothing into this world,
And nothing we take when we pass.
So the time in between we must use carefully,
for only the memories will last.
We hurt because you left us.
We cry because you're gone;
with sorrow we must say goodbye,
but your memory lives on.
Because of what you mean to us,
the loneliness will always remain.
But because of all the love you gave,
in our hearts, you'll live always.
How far from Him, alone and lost at times I seem to be—
Who go God's road, a wanderer across eternity.
And yet, though I am far from Him,
how near at hand is He.
Sometimes I feel I need but reach to touch and look to see.
By world and wild, by wood and word—
It is a mystery.
Why must I go so round a road
To Him who is in me.

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

Heaven holds them close, together once more
