

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you'll miss me too

When tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

So when tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.

In Appreciation

The family wishes to thank you for all the love, support and prayers extended to the family during this time of bereavement. May God bless you and keep you in His care.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Her Journey

Mary Frances Giles, 76, began her life November 13, 1947 in Toccoa, GA to the late Edward Rosemond and Lois Giles. Mary attended Whitman Street School.

In 1965 when she was 17, she moved to Philadelphia, PA where she remained until her death. Shortly after moving to Philly, she met and became close friends with Oliva Brooks, Delvia Fowler, Carla Chambers and Katherine Williams (deceased). Those five young ladies became so close that they started claiming to be sisters. They loved each other like true siblings and for those that didn't know they weren't real sisters wouldn't have known.

Mary is survived by her daughters, Shuri Giles and Beverly Foulk; two granddaughters, Nadaica Giles, Denisha Foulk; and one great granddaughter, Sanaa Hanable.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family
