The Obituary

Lueveina Blakey, wife of Harry L. Blakey Sr, joyfully transitioned to be with the Lord on Sunday, July 21, 2024, in the comfort of her home in Pottstown, PA. Born on June 25, 1938 in Oxford, North Carolina, Lou was the 1st of 8 children born to the union of Catherine (Cooper) Harris and Willie Joe Harris. When the family relocated to Pennsylvania, Lou continued her Christian-walk and was baptized in Second Baptist Church on July 27, 1950 by the late Reverend Haywood L. Butler.

Lou enjoyed reading, learning, and spending time with family and friends. During an outing at a baseball game with friends, Lou met the love of her life, Harry Leroy Blakey Sr. Leroy soon went to her parent's home, asked permission to speak to Lou, and a courtship began. On January 17, 1959, Lou and Leroy married and began their life as one. To this lovely union, God blessed three sons and two daughters: Ray, Patricia, Harry Jr., Brian and Katina. While raising five children, Lou cared for her mother, and her siblings. Lou was an amazing mother and consummate "big sister", with a heart as big as the sky. She doted on her sister Brenna, and was sure to love on her 6 brothers, praying with them and for them. Additionally, Lou worked as an aide and a professional seamstress. She cared for people in a compassionate way, for which the medical staff and patients appreciated. Lou's caring hands also afforded her the ability to sew for top brands, and create beautiful clothing that was admired by many. She adored her family, nurtured each child and grandchild in a special way, and enjoyed her work, but Lou's love for the Lord is what made those things possible.

Lou raised her family in the Word. She read scriptures, aided them in memorizing the books of the Bible, shared home Bible study sessions and led a Christian-walk everywhere she went. In her younger years at Second Baptist Church, Lou served as a financial steward, balancing the financial records to the penny. Lou also served as a Missionary, Women's Group Leader, Celestial Chorus member, Pastor's Prayer Guild Member, VBS leader, Senior's Ministry and Sunday School member, and ultimately was selected to serve as a Deaconess by Reverend David Minus Jr. Lou served for several years in any capacity the Lord chose. She was humble, but a strong witness for the Lord. She sowed into others, not only as a member/officer, but as a fellow sister. Lou did not pass judgment. Instead, she shared stories of what the Lord can do, becoming known as Mother Lou, and a prayer warrior for The Lord. Lou increased her biblical knowledge under the teachings of Pastor Roland H. Anderson II., endeavoring always for agape love. Lou was a faithful servant in her Bible meeting and prayer studies within Second Baptist Church and Landmark Ministries, and supported Harris Family Ministries however she could, until her health declined. At that time, Lou was comforted hearing God's Word in speech and in song from representatives of each ministry. Though several attributes could be listed, Lou often stated, "Only what you do for the Lord will last"; "If it had not been for the Lord..." and "It is not of any title, accolade, or great thing we accomplish, but is about what God does for us and through us; we are nothing without The Lord". Lou truly loved the Lord.

Mourning but Celebrating her life are her children: Ray Blakey, Patricia Levi (Leroy), Harry Blakey Jr. (Diedre), Brian Blakey (Sonya), and Katina Bearden; 20 Grandchildren; 11 great grandchildren; 2 great-great grandchildren; two brothers: Samuel Harris Sr. (Marietta), and Willie Graham Harris (Patricia); special in-laws: Charles Hicks and Georgiana Harris; Goddaughter, Lanetra Hicks; best friend, Etta Perkins; bonus sons: Valiant Hardy, and Adelbert Savage; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

Lueveina was preceded in death by her husband, Harry Leroy Blakey Sr.; parents: Catherine and Willie Joe Harris, stepfather James Harris; brothers: Carvey Harris (Georgiana), Harvey Harris, Wallace Harris (Nancy-deceased), Sherman Harris; and sister, Brenna Hicks (Charles).

"Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there', and it will move.

Nothing will be impossible for you."

~Matthew 17:20

"The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in Him, and I am helped. Therefore, my heart rejoices, and I give thanks to Him with my song."

~Psalm 28:7

"Trust in the Lord with all of your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct your paths."

~Proverbs 3:5-6

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We are truly grateful to Pastor Anderson, the Second Baptist Church Family, Friends & Colleagues for your consistent prayers both before and during our time of bereavement. Your selfless acts of love, visits, cards, and song warmed our mother's heart more than any words can express. For this, we thank you. May God Bless You.

SPECIAL THANK YOU

Tower Health Hospital Medical Team, Tom Bowes, Alan Harris, Cathy Heath, Gina Hunt, Sonya Jackson and Corinne Scherel, for their awesome care and oversight for our mother.
