

REMEMBER ME

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all good times,
Shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Because I know by loving you
That I made you smile.

When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.

So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Every morning, noon and night.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family would like to take this opportunity to extend our sincere appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy, words of comfort and prayers during our time of bereavement. May God forever bless and keep each of you in His tender loving care.

His Life Story

ANTHONY JOHN NEAL was born January 21, 1953, son of Carcione Anthony Neal who lived on Erie Avenue in Philadelphia.

Big brother to Johnny and Helen. He attended St. Edward's Elementary School and Bristol Junior High School.

Soon he would move to California to live with family, but soon moved back to Philadelphia.

He later would join the military, Marines in 1976 and received high honors being a sharpshooter which he was honorably discharged.

His first daughter Tracy then his twins Pamela and Anthony. Soon he had another son also named Anthony.

Later in his life he met his now wife Roberta and his stepdaughter Carmen. They had a son who is also named Anthony James Phillips-Neal.

He traveled performing Elvis and attending Elvis competitions. Red Bank, NJ, and MTV video in New York.

Along the way he gained many friends and co-workers at KFC and karaoke co-hosts.

He leaves behind his wife Roberta, three sons, three daughters, one stepdaughter, 12 grandchildren, Timothy, Angelica, Joel, Destiny, Julia, Namir, Zahir, Amani, Tracy, four children, nieces Jennifer and Anjala, nephews Dave, Micheal, Christopher, Miciah, Charles, great nephew Alex, eight great nieces and six great nephews.

One of many sayings he had "Say what you mean and mean what you say".

He told his youngest son one night "I loved my dad a lot and followed in his footsteps. I had a rough childhood, but my dad taught me everything I knew. I've made mistakes with most of my kids, and I hope one day they'll forgive me for my misdeeds, my last son AJ was my pride and joy.

My son is smart, driven, and passionate about what he does. I just want him to know that. I taught him well and I love him no matter where I am".
