

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Clarence was born on December 31, 1948, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Johnnie and Dessie Mason. He went to Douglas Elementary and graduated from Courter Tech High School.

Clarence had various occupations: he was a laborer, maintenance man, janitor, and mechanic. Clarence was employed at Saw Brooks Steel in the early 70's. He was a jack of all trades, but was a musician at heart.

Clarence was a self-taught guitarist but learned a lot about playing the guitar from Albert Washington. He played at many nightclubs: The Vets Inn, The Wine Bar, Soul Lounge, Babe Baker's, The Viking Lounge, and Clock Lounge.

He was a member of the MD Fire Department Band from 1971 to 1973. He played guitar with Bootsy Collins and knew the late Roger Troutman in the early stages of his career. He played with many well-known artists in the greater Cincinnati area. In addition to being a musician, he will also be remembered for his sense of humor and charming personality.

Clarence is preceded in death by his parents, Johnnie and Dessie Mason; his siblings, John Mason Jr., Rose Pickett, Lethia Randolph, Ruby Moore, Henry Mason, Bobby Mason; his wife, Deborah Mason; and his son, Clarence C Mason.

Clarence leaves his memories to be cherished by his daughters; Yolanda Mason, Elaine Younger, Ella Younger and Nikki Younger, and their mother, Terri Younger, 8 grandchildren (2 deceased), 7 great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
