I've Only Moved Away

When my life on earth is over
And my body is cold and still
Do not grieve because I left you
Just remember it was God's will.
All my suffering will be over
Every trial and ever test
When God has called and I have answered, don't weep for I'll be at rest.
Only ask yourself this question
"Am I ready to meet Him there?"
Where there'll be no separation
In heaven so bright and fair.
When you pass to view my body
Remember it's just a house of clay.
Jesus has built for me a mansion
And I've only moved away.

Come With Me

*The Lord saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put his arms around you
And whispered, "Come with me."
With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away,
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
A beautiful smile at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best.
It's lonesome here without you
We miss you so each day,
Our lives aren't the same
Since you went away.
When days are sad and lonely,
And everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper,
"Cheer up and carry on."
Each time we see your picture,
You seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping,
We'll meet again someday."*
