Obituary

TAMIKA TYSON (McCLENDON) was called from labor to reward on July 24, 2023. She was born August 4, 1976 to the late Lynette and Tommie McClendon of Baltimore, Maryland. She is survived by her devoted and loving husband Deshane Tyson. She departed this life after enduring a lengthy illness. However, this illness could not dim her light.

She graduated from Walbrook High School in 1994. She began her career as a bus driver in 2000 at the Mass Transit Administration and medically retired in 2016. While at MTA she met the love of her life Deshane Tyson in 2003, and from this union came two daughters, Keyontae and Kiya Tyson.

Tamika loved being in the company of family and friends. She was known to be the life of the party. Tamika will forever be known as a giving and loving individual and always willing to lend a helping hand. Her sharp and witty personality was infectious to those who knew her. She will be greatly missed but forever in our hearts.

Tamika leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband, Deshane Tyson; two daughters, Keyontae-Lynette Dominic Tyson and KiyaNashae Tyson; one sister, Jacqueline McClendon; uncles, Gerald Powell (Shirley) and Robert McClendon; great-aunt, Rosetta Holloman; aunt, Joyce Daniel; stepmother, Ivey McClendon; godchildren, James and Jamal Davis; cousin, Tara Boykin (Seth and Delano), Angela Powell (Joshua, Jeremiah, Julius, Julia), Marketta Perry; and her devoted pet Buddy (cat); a host of other relatives and friends.

BENEDICTION

THE SUN OF MY EYE

A radiant glow
A glow that has given life
A glow that has been present in my life
ever since time immemorial
A glow that has sparked a flame in the hearts of many
A raging sun behind that fierce glow
A sun that has lit the darkest corners of our souls
A sun whose presence will always be felt by those who have been touched
A carnation, a daffodil, a daisy, and a honeysuckle
These flowers will always treasure that wonderful glow
Our sun
The sun of my eye

Your citrine glow has warmed the iciest of hearts
Your raging power that has inspired many
A fierce glow that can never be forgotten
Even as you fade under the horizon
We can still feel the warmth you have provided
A warmth that can never disappear
Our sun
The Sun of My Eye
Lovingly submitted, Kiya and Keyontae
