

His Light Still Shines

"This little light of mine," he sang—
And oh, how bright it grew,
In easy laughter, warm embraces,
In every kind thing he would do.

From Madison's familiar roads
To classrooms filled with cheer,
He poured himself into his work
And served with heart sincere.

A Panther once, with dreams in hand,
He journeyed forth to learn,
Then back to home and community
With wisdom to return.

He cast his line in quiet streams,
Told tales of fish untamed,
And in the kitchen stirred up love
No recipe could name.

With seasoned hands and gentle grin,
He fed both soul and plate—
On holidays and common days,
He made each moment great.

Through shifting jobs and changing times,
Through trials come what may,
He chose to be a shining light
In someone's life each day.

And when his steps grew slow with time,
The Lord spoke soft and sweet,
"Come home, dear son, your work is done,
Your joy is now complete."

Those we love don't go away—
They walk beside us still,
In stories shared, in songs once sung,
In faith that bends our will.

Unseen, unheard, but always near,
In laughter's gentle chime,
In every meal, in every hug,
In echoes of that rhyme.

Still loved, still missed, forever dear,
Though tears may softly fall—
For Papa's light is shining yet,
And love outlives it all.

LIFE STORY

Clarence Alexander
"Papa"

JUNE 1, 1956 – FEBRUARY 2, 2026

"This Little Light of Mine: I'm Going to Let It Shine"

Clarence Alexander, affectionately known as "Papa," was born in Madison, Florida, on June 1, 1956, to Ulysses Alexander and Bertha Mae Ivory Brinson Alexander. He was best known for his jovial personality, which radiated smiles, generated laughter, and created humor in any imaginable, fun-loving way. He was a lifelong resident of his childhood community.

Clarence worshipped with his family at New Antioch African Methodist Episcopal (A.M.E.) Church of the Jeslamb A.M.E. Church Circuit. It was there during his earlier years that he professed his faith in Jesus Christ as his Savior.

Educated in the Madison County Public School District, Clarence was a 1974 Madison High School graduate who later earned his bachelor's degree at Edward Waters College (University) in Jacksonville, Florida. He returned home to give back to the community and as a result, he gained employment at Madison Middle School where he once attended as a student. However, he left because of the School District's cutbacks and layoffs but was hired respectively by Metal Products and Dixie Packers prior to their going out of business. His final position of employment was with the Apalachee Center for Human Services. Regardless of his job or situation, Clarence was committed to making each day a little brighter for everyone whose lives he impacted.

One of Clarence's leisure enjoyments was fishing and sharing his catch and/or stories of the ones that got away. He also found peace in preparing savory soul food and baking mouthwatering treats. His specialty meals were always enjoyed and appreciated, especially during the holidays and at family events.

The Lord, seeing that Clarence Alexander had grown tired, looked upon him with eyes of mercy. Then on Monday, February 2, 2026, He whispered, "Go in peace. You've earned your rest." In obedience, Clarence quietly transitioned to his eternal home.

Clarence Alexander's presence was a gift, but his absence leaves a void that can never be filled. He is gone from his loved ones' sight but never their hearts. Forever cherishing his precious memories are his brothers: L.C. (Annie) Alexander of Miami, FL, Jerry Alexander, and Thomas (Priscilla) Alexander, all of Madison, FL; sisters: Geraldine Alexander and May Linda Alexander, both of Madison, FL; along with many other sorrowing relatives and caring friends.

Preceding Clarence Alexander in death were his parents: Ulysses Alexander and Bertha Mae Ivory Brinson Alexander, and his sisters: Lucille Thompson, Margie Bellamy, Josephine McCray, and Deloris Alexander Turner.
