Nanny

“It's been the hardest thing to lose you
 You meant so much to me
 But you are in my heart and that's where you'll always be
 I know that Heaven called you
 But I wish you could have stayed
 At least the memories I have of you
 They will never fade
 I did not want to lose you
 But you did not go alone
 Because a part of me went with you
 When Heaven called you home
 So just remember one thing
 We are not apart
 You're with me in my memories
 And in my broken heart”

Her story

Muriel CarolAnn Mitchell was born on March 14, 1945, in Salisbury, Maryland, to the late Joseph and Mary Louise Johnson. She later made her home in Philadelphia, where she built a life centered on faith, family, and service.

She was a devoted mother to Charles, Raymond, and Rhonda Mitchell, and a loving grandmother to all her grandchildren. Her family was her greatest joy and proudest accomplishment. Muriel was also a well-loved staple in her North Philadelphia neighborhood. Affectionately known as “Nanny” to those who knew her well, she was always available for stern advice, quiet conversation, or just an ear to listen in times of need. Muriel was an active member of Greenwood Community Baptist Church where she taught Sunday School and sang on the church choir.

Muriel retired from Women Against Abuse, where she extended her compassionate spirit to those in need. She loved going to church, listening to music, dancing, and baking her famous pound cakes for family and friends. Her warmth, strength, and joyful heart will always be remembered.

She is preceded in death by her daughter, Rhonda Mitchell; son, Charles Mitchell; sister, Emily Johnson; brothers, George Johnson and Tyrone Johnson; and grandson, Logan Mitchell.

She leaves to mourn her son, Raymond Mitchell; siblings Wanda Pitt and Roger Johnson; grandchildren, Kissiah Mitchell, Ammaryn Mitchell, Cayden Mitchell, and Janessa Stoner; two great grandchildren, Isaiah and Nikiyah Armstrong; Two first cousins, Louise Wright and Sidney B. Wright (wife Lycadia) and a host of nieces and nephews.
