Trust Him

Trust Him when dark doubts assail you.

Trust Him when to simply Trust Him, seems like the hardest thing to do.

Trust Him, He is ever faithful.

Trust Him, for His will is best.

Trust Him for the Heart of Jesus is the only place of rest.

Trust Him, then through doubts and sunshine.

All the care upon Him cast, till the storm of life is over and the trusting days are past.

Iva M. (Pugh) Lowe was born on April 20, 1925, on a farm near Summit, SD. She was the daughter of Clem and Lizzy (Stoddard) Pugh. She married Donald Lowe on February 7, 1944.

The couple farmed near Summit for two years then moved to a farm near Wilmot and raised their five children. In 1984, the couple moved into the town of Wilmot. In 2011, Iva moved to Arizona. She returned to South Dakota in 2012 and lived at Edgewood Senior Living in Watertown until her death.

Iva loved her family and helping others. She enjoyed volunteering for the prison ministry at Appleton, MN, for two years. She enjoyed spending the winters in Arizona for 15 years. She had a variety of interests including cooking and baking (donuts and pies were her specialty), sewing, crocheting, knitting, embroidery, and quilting. Iva was a faithful member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Wilmot and upon moving to Watertown, became a member of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church. She was a very compassionate and caring person with a positive attitude.

Left to cherish Iva's memory are her five children: Jane Moen of Sidney, OH; Kathy (Dallas) Schmeling of Twin Brooks, SD; Patricia (Ron) Williams of Watertown, SD; Brian Lowe of Wilmot, SD; Joan (Tom) Kern of Sun Lakes, AZ; 16 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren; 12 great-great grandchildren, along with many nieces and nephews.

Iva was preceded in death by her parents: Clem and Lizzy Pugh; her husband, Donnie; her siblings: Marge Amdahl, Donald Pugh, Maxine Owen, Norm Pugh, DeEll Pugh, and John Pugh; her daughter-in-law, Linda Lowe; and her son-in-law, John Moen.
