

Randy Gackle, 66, of Fargo, North Dakota, died on December 19, 2025, at Sanford Medical Center in Fargo.

Randy was born on December 9, 1959, in Fargo, North Dakota, to Lloyd and Elaine (Bjur) Gackle.

He grew up in Fargo, attending local schools and graduating from Fargo North High School in 1978. He briefly attended NDSU before going to work for his father at Universal Services where he enjoyed interacting with customers.

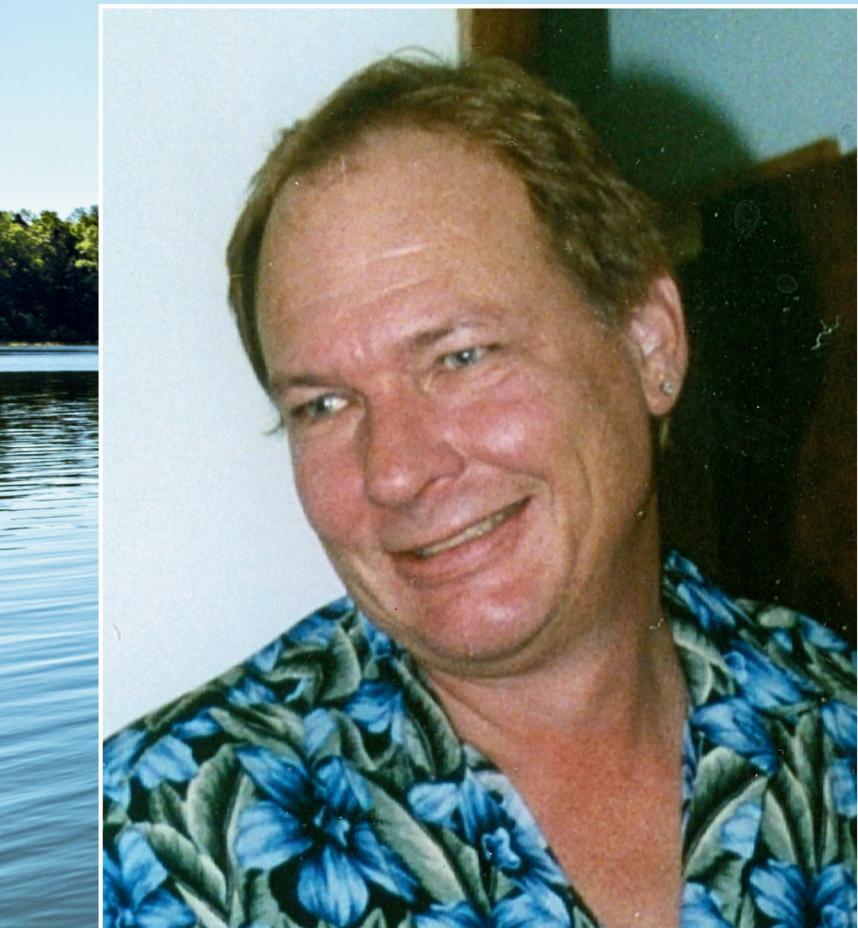

Randy especially enjoyed spending time at the family lake place on Little McDonald Lake. He loved fishing, hunting, and playing billiards, and was an avid Bison football fan. He was proud of earning the rank of Eagle Scout. He was quiet and didn't express emotion much. He was reserved but watched and observed keenly. He had a special bond with his two dogs, Lucky and Coco. Randy loved to go hunting with his dad and brother and when his sons were old enough, hunting with them. He would love teasing his brother while he tried to sleep with afternoon sun shining in as they drove looking for ducks.

His two boys were his biggest source of pride. To Sunday school, baseball and football practice many of rides were spent together.

Randy is survived by his sons, Chris (Elaina Gonzalez-Gackle) Gackle and Lee (Cleone) Gackle; his parents, Lloyd and Elaine Gackle; his siblings, Jody (John Tuff) Gackle and Tim Gackle; and his grandchildren, Logan Gonzalez-Gackle, Aria Gonzalez-Gackle, Scarlett Gonzalez-Gackle, and Azalea Gackle.

IN LOVING MEMORY

RANDY STEVE GACKLE

December 9, 1959 - December 19, 2025

“Do not let your hearts be troubled.
Believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places.
If it were not so, would I have told you that
I go to prepare a place for you?

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also.

And you know the way to the place where I am going.”

Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?”

Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life.
No one comes to the Father except through me.”

~ John 14; 1-6

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

~ Psalm 23
