

AMAZING GRACE

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch; like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see,

Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

The Lord hath promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be As long as life endures,

When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise Than when we first begun, rest in the bosom of our Lord as we celebrate your life

WHEN WE WALK WITH THE LORD

When we walk with the Lord in the light of His Word, What a glory He sheds on our way!
While we do His good will,
He abides with us still, And with all who will trust and obey.

Refrain
Trust and obey, for theres no other way
To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey,

Not a shadow can rise, not a cloud in the skies, But His smile quickly drives it away; Not a doubt or a fear, not a sigh or a tear, Can abide while we trust and obey.

Refrain
Not a burden we bear, not a sorrow we share, but our toil He doth richly repay; Not a grief or a loss, not a frown or a cross, But is blessed if we trust and obey.

Refrain

*Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am in a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain,
When you wake in morning hush, I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circling flight, I am the soft starlight at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there. I did not die.*

Obituary

Edward Kwaku Opoku, age 68 of Hamilton, Ohio passed away peacefully on Thursday, October 4, 2018 at Mercy Hospital Fairfield. Born April 18, 1950 in Kumasi, Ghana. He was the son of the late Kwasi Poku and Abena Temah.
