

Mattox Aron Cole was born on June 2, 2022. He was a bright light in our lives, teaching us more about courage, joy, and unconditional love than words could ever fully express. He faced each day with resilience, grace, and a smile that could light up the darkest room. Despite the obstacles life presented, Mattox found joy in the little things--cuddles with family and the love of everyone lucky enough to know him. He taught us all to slow down, to notice the beauty in the present, and to love fiercely. We are grateful for the time we had with Mattox, however short, and we will carry his memory in our hearts forever. He was a gift to this world, and we are better for having known and loved him.

Mattox was preceded in death by his Nana, Alice Cole, his Papa, Jack Cole, and his uncle Carson Cole.

Those left to cherish his memory are his parents, Heath and Crystal Cole of the home, Ryan Thomas of Spiro, OK, siblings, Ava Cole of the home, Hadley Cole of the home, Kallye Turner of Shawnee, Jackson Cole and spouse Jayden of Panama, and Junior Mary Thomas of Spiro, special niece and nephews, Eden Turner, Noah Turner, and Jedidiah Cole, uncles, Ron Cole and wife Ronda of Stigler and Brian Watson and wife Crysta of Hartshorne, grandparents, Debra and Thomas Watson of Keota and Amy Keifer of Spiro, as well as a whole host of bonus nieces, nephews, brothers, and sisters.

THE WINDOW IN HEAVEN

*It's my first day in heaven and what a beautiful place,
You'll be glad to know there's a smile upon my face,
The moment I left you two angels in white array
Carried me up here to heaven that day.*

*All those stories you hear are true I didn't have to walk in
The angels carried me through,
There's a gate at the end made of pearl,
It's like the biggest gate in the world!
Once I got in and started looking around,
You won't believe all the things that I found!*

*The first place they took me had to be the most fun,
A humongous field, with miles to run!
Once I was tired the angels said,
"We'll take you to your home, but first we need to stop by this place full of good things."*

*They told me to take one with me but one is all I need,
Because every good thing lasts forever up in heaven you see,
They took me to my new house it took my breath away,
Most beautiful place I've ever seen with a huge yard to play,
They said, "Come on let's go inside and have a look around."
They took me to the bottom floor, you won't believe what I found,
The bottom of my house is a window and you won't believe the view.
See my house it sets right over yours so I can still keep an eye on you!*

*I was so worried about you when I went away,
Now I can watch you every second and know that you are okay!*

*I can't wait for that moment when we can walk around this place,
And I can cover you with kisses on every inch of your face!*
