

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my
soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Acknowledgments

The family wishes to express our deepest gratitude for the outpouring of love, support, and condolences we have received during this difficult time. Your kind words, thoughtful gestures, and presence have brought comfort and strength to us all. We appreciate every call, visit, card, and prayer, and we are truly thankful for the community that surrounds us. May God bless each of you for your compassion and kindness.

Obituary

Patrice Marie Robinson, affectionately known to many as “Pokey,” brought light, laughter, and love to all who knew her. Born on Thursday, December 2, 1971, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Freddie James and the late Rena Louise Robinson, Pokey was the youngest of three daughters in her family. She peacefully entered eternal rest on September 8, 2025, leaving a legacy that will be cherished forever.

Pokey was a proud resident of Forest Park, where she filled her community with joy and strength. An alumna of the final graduating class of Forest Park High School in 1991, she also completed her studies at Scarlet Oaks, earning her certification in Cosmetology—a testament to her creativity and drive.

Her zest for life shone through in her love for family, friends, music, good food, and laughter. Whether cruising around in her trusty truck or bringing people together, Pokey’s outgoing personality and compassionate heart made her a beloved fixture in every circle she touched.

For over two decades, Pokey proudly served as a bus driver for Princeton City Schools with First Student, safely guiding generations of students and earning admiration for her dedication and warmth.

Pokey’s radiant smile could brighten any room, and her generous spirit—nurtured from childhood by her mother—was felt by all. She was a thoughtful listener and a peacemaker, providing comfort and encouragement whenever it was needed.

Though preceded in death by her mother, Rena, her brother, Tyrone, and her sister, Angela, Pokey’s absence leaves a profound void. Yet, her vibrant spirit lives on in the hearts of her surviving family: her father, Freddie, Sr.; siblings, Chonda, Sharma, Tanya, Anthony, and Freddie, Jr.; along with her beloved nieces and nephews—Mionna, Lauren, Chambre, Carlton, Garron, J’Lanya, Marissa, Lailah, Dominique, David, Jr., Quiana, Shawntez, Conrad—and a host of great-nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.

Patrice “Pokey” Robinson’s memory will forever be celebrated; her laughter echoes in our hearts, and her kindness inspires all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her spirit continues to guide and uplift her family, friends, and community, reminding us that joy lives on when love is shared.
