IN LOVING MEMORY

Braxton Elix Jones

October 28, 2019 – July 5, 2026

Braxton Elix Jones, a vibrant, pure-hearted, and deeply loved six-year-old boy, passed away on Sunday, July 5, 2026. Born on October 28, 2019, in Brigham City, Utah, Braxton brought an immense amount of light, laughter, and genuine kindness to everyone fortunate enough to cross his path during his short but beautiful time on earth. Braxton was a true angel on Earth, with a heart so pure he didn't have a single mean bone in his body. He was our little social butterfly who loved everyone. At the Peach Days parade, he never had to be told to share—he would happily hand his candy over to other kids just to see them smile. He loved chatting with grown-ups and making strangers happy with his sweet, unexpected compliments. He once made a lady's day at the Old Grist Mill by telling her how much he loved her shiny loafers. He'd walk into the salon, look at the clients, and tell them, "You look beautiful!"—he really could have been paid as a professional greeter. He was an old soul who noticed every little detail, always made sure no one was left out, and gave the best unprompted compliments. He was incredibly observant, giving unprompted compliments and making sure no one was ever left out. Though he could be a little stubborn when he set his mind to something, it was almost always for a good reason.

Our little guy had a superpower memory, too. He could still remember his very first apartment from before he was two years old, and he never forgot the "evil park" where a bee once stung him.

Alongside his sweet demeanor was a wild, physical, and adventurous spirit. Braxton was always climbing and constantly on the move. He loved dinosaurs, Sonic the Hedgehog, Minecraft, and playing Fortnite on his Nintendo Switch. He belonged outdoors—whether he was camping, swimming like a natural in the water, or standing proudly on a paddleboard while his mom paddled. Just recently, he hit a major milestone by learning to ride his bicycle without training wheels. He had a deep obsession with stick-on tattoos, constantly asking for them, which recently culminated in a fun, full "tattoo day" with his stepbrothers. He also cherished playing badminton with his grandpa and taking special trips to the splash pad and park with his grandparents.

This fall, Braxton was so excited to take a big step and start first grade at Golden Spike Elementary School.

Braxton's bright light will always shine for his mom, Shayla Marie Jones (Tate Richan); his dad, Connor Jones (Nikki Hill); and his cool stepbrothers, Tylen and Roman Hill. He is also deeply missed by his grandparents, Vic and Mary Jones, and James Bryan (Tera) Jones; along with lots of playful aunts, uncles, and cousins. Missing him terribly is his furry best friend and dog, Lilly, who grew up right by his side and still goes into his bedroom looking for her favorite boy.

Waiting to hug him in heaven are his great-grandparents, Endress; his grandma, Heidi Ann Fujikawa; and his great-grandma, Penny Price.

In honor of Braxton, please remember to share your candy, give a stranger a kind compliment, and live life with a pure, happy heart.
