

Wanda Pearl Weaver, born on February 3, 1943, in Phoenix, AZ, entered her eternal home peacefully on June 27, 2026.

She was a loving mother, an amazing listener, and had a huge heart for animals. She would rescue a dog or cat in a heartbeat, always putting their needs ahead of her own. She was married to the love of her life, William B. Weaver, for 35 wonderful years before his passing in 2012. Together, they traveled, danced, and showed us what a lasting, loving marriage looked like.

She is survived by her children, Lydia M. Waibl and her husband, Johnnie M. Waibl, and Johnna S. Graves; and her grandchildren, Catrina L. Lynn and her husband, David B. Lynn, LaChele N. Hardic and her husband, William Hardic, and Dustin M. Waibl and his wife, Lindsey M. Waibl. She was preceded in death by her beloved oldest grandson, Nathan M. Waibl, who passed away in April 2023. She is also survived by her great-grandchildren, Jacob L. May, Marshal Lynn, Danielle J. Lynn, Alexander R. Hardic, Thomas C. Hardic, Natalie M. Waibl, Nathan B. Waibl and his wife, Elizabeth Waibl, Alison M. Waibl, Charlie M. Waibl, and Dylan M. Waibl; her great-great-grandchildren, Lucash Waibl, Esmeray Waibl, and Emmilylin Sawyer; and her cherished feline companion, Mandy, and her beloved husky, Juno.

Our hearts will forever hold the love she surrounded us with, and that love will carry us through the days ahead. Each time we think of her, we will smile, remembering the joy she brought into our lives.

Until we meet again, we will carry her love in our hearts, cherish the memories she gave us, and find comfort in knowing she is finally at peace in the presence of her Savior.

Celebrating THE Life OF
Wanda Pearl Weaver

February 3, 1943 – June 27, 2026

GOD looked around the garden,
And found an empty space.
He looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face. He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
For He only takes the BEST.
He knew that you were weary,
and He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never be well on earth again.
He saw the roads were getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids, and whispered
Peace be Thine.

In Loving Memory of

Wanda Pearl Weaver

February 3, 1943 ~ June 27, 2026

Celebration of Life

10:00 a.m. Friday, July 17, 2026
The Moser Funeral Service Chapel
Evans, Colorado

Officiating

Mrs. Lydia Waibl

Special Words of Remembrance

Ms. Johnna Graves
Wanda's Family and Friends

Tribute Video

Special Photo Memories of Wanda's Life
"Amazing Grace - Alan Jackson
"How Great Thou Art" - The Statler Brothers

Special Music

"Go Rest High on That Mountain" - Vince Gill

Final Resting Place

Inurned with her husband, William Weaver
Cheyenne National Cemetery
Cheyenne, Wyoming

Military Honors

United States Navy Honor Guard
Cheyenne American Legion