

In Loving Memory of
Joyce Hyer Kotter

Born July 19, 1928 - Ogden, Utah
Died December 11, 2024 - Spanish Fork, Utah

Weep Not for Me

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight
I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life.

Joyce Hyer Kotter, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully on December 11, 2024, in Spanish Fork, Utah, at the age of 96. Joyce was born on July 19, 1928, in Ogden, Utah, to Ariel and Anne Hyer. She was the second of four children, siblings, Paul Hyer, Blaine Hyer, and Barbara Montgomery.

Joyce married Cleon Kotter, in the Idaho Falls Temple of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Their eternal union was the foundation of a joyful life. They raised six sons: Van (deceased), Rod, Rich, Quade, Dirk, and Bart.

Joyce had a deep and abiding love for her Savior, Jesus Christ, and a strong testimony of the truthfulness of the restored gospel. Her faith shaped every aspect of her life, and she dedicated herself to living as a disciple of Christ, embodying kindness, humility, and charity. She spent countless hours in service to her family, her church, and her community, always striving to uplift and inspire those around her.

Joyce and Cleon raised their family in Logan, Utah, where they created a home filled with love, laughter, and gospel teachings., forming lasting friendships and contributing to her community. Her enduring influence will be felt through the generations of her family and those whose lives she touched. She will be profoundly missed.

Joyce and Cleon served as senior missionaries in the Alabama Birmingham Mission strengthening the wards. They developed strong lasting relationships with the members.

Joyce is survived by her daughter-in-law, Alice Allred; her sons Rod (spouse Melanie), Rich (spouse Ronda), Quade (spouse Ann), Dirk (spouse Valarie), and Bart (spouse Melissa); numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren; and her extended family and friends who loved her dearly. She is predeceased by her husband Cleon, her son Van, her parents Ariel and Anne, and her siblings Paul, Blaine, and Barbara. Memories and condolences may be shared and expressed at www.allenmortuaries.com.
