

In Loving Memory

When I must leave you for a little while.
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow
to you through the years,
But start out bravely
with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all the things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you
and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

Vivian was born Thursday, March 28, 1935 to Frederick and Hilda (Handel) Zeeb. She was baptized July 21, 1935 and confirmed June 19, 1949 at Menno Salem Reformed Church. Vivian went to Zeeb Country School and graduated from Menno High School in 1953.

Vivian became the bride of Vernon Gall, on June 3, 1956 at the Salem Reformed Church in Menno, a loving marriage lasting 65 years. The couple was blessed with two children, Fred and Vicki. They had a blessed life on the family farm raising crops, hogs, cows, and chickens. Vivian was a farm wife and homemaker making sure the farm men and anyone that stopped by never went hungry. Vivian spent many hours volunteering and loved babysitting her precious grandchildren. Vivian and her sister Irene enjoyed sewing and made many quilts and rugs. Vivian loved “having coffee” and hosted many card and coffee parties with the Lesterville ladies along with friends from near and far.

Vernon and Vivian moved to “town” leaving the farm December 1, 1989 and buying a house in Lesterville. They then moved to the Good Samaritan Society, Scotland, in May of 2020. Vivian and Vernon loved to travel! Some of their favorite trips included bear hunting in Canada, visiting friends in Germany, an Alaskan cruise, and a vacation to China.

Vivian passed away Friday, March 28, 2025 at Good Samaritan Society, Scotland at the age of 90.

Vivian is survived by son, Fred (Tricia) Gall of Lesterville, SD; daughter Vicki Aldridge (Michael Suhr) of Jefferson, SD; grandchildren and their families, Derick (Samantha) Gall of Sioux City, IA, Sydney (Kory and great-grandchildren, Brewer and Faye) Kepplinger of Kaylor, SD, Cheyanne Cope (great-grandchild, Courtney) of Elk Point, SD, Taylor (Trenton) Weber of Parkston, SD, Jordan Gall (Zoe Gulker) of Lesterville, SD and Trinity Aldridge of Nemo, SD.

She was preceded in death by her parents, sister, brother and husband, Vernon.
