

OBITUARY

Sherri Carroll, born on July 2, 1963, in Fort Worth, Texas, passed away peacefully on February 20, 2025, in Joshua, Texas. A beloved wife of 41 years, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, Sherri brought joy and laughter to all who had the privilege of knowing her.

She is survived by her husband, Clifford Carroll, her children, Bodie Carroll and wife Lauren, Kodie Sageser and husband Drew; her granddaughters, Leyton, Kadie, and Breck, and grandsons, James and Parker; sisters Debbie Walker and husband Dale, Cinda Armstrong and husband Dustin, Maria D. Ibarra and husband Benigno Rios, Maria G. Varela and husband Luis, and brother Justin Barnett, many nieces, nephews, and her beloved animals.

Sherri was known for her generous spirit and her unwavering support of her family's business endeavors. She had a natural gift for storytelling and relished the warmth of big gatherings, where her sentimental and humorous nature shone brightly. An embodiment of love and care, Sherri embraced her role as a caretaker for her family, always putting their needs ahead of her own.

Throughout her life, Sherri created lasting memories that will be treasured forever. She had a particular fondness for Coca-Cola, black forest pie, and spoiling her grandkids. Sherri's kindness, laughter, and the stories she shared will forever resonate in the hearts of those she loved and left behind.

Sherri Carroll will be dearly missed by all who knew her, and her memory will live on in the hearts of her loved ones.
