

Dear Son

I would choose you to be my son in every lifetime. You may no longer walk beside me, but your love still surrounds my heart every single day since you were born. My days will always be brighter because of your existence, and my nights darker because you are gone and no matter the grief or the time and healing you will always be my baby boy and I will never forget you until my last breath and my heart stop beating daddy will always love you feeky I wish I could hold you in my arms but you are forever in my heart.

I will always love and miss you until we meet again, son.

THE LIFE & LIGHT OF Ryfeek

With heavy hearts and profound sadness, we announce the passing of our beloved Ryfeek J. Watson, Jr., who left the world on May 28, 2026, at the tender age of 14. Born on September 28, 2011, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, at Harrisburg Hospital. Ryfeek attended Rowland Academy Elementary School. He brought love, laughter, and so much joy into our hearts, and to anyone who knew him.

Ryfeek was family-oriented, loved to enjoy his family and friends, playing football – his favorite team was the “Eagles.” He was just a kid enjoying life, embracing each day with youthful energy and enthusiasm. He had such an unmatched and beautiful bond with his parents, mother, Felicia A. Ezell, and father, Ryfeek Watson, Sr.

Ryfeek leaves behind his siblings, Laziah Ezell, Dei'Ante Ezell, Martina Ezell-Mitchell, Da'Ryijah Ezell-Jones, Damiah Ezell-Jones, Rae'Shawn Ezell, Myi'Shawn Ezell, and brother in Heaven, Sa'Fear Ezell Slaughter.

He also leaves behind his great-grandmothers, Gwen Ezell and Verinca Allen; his grandfather, Craig Ezell, Sr.; his grandmothers, Dorothy Roberson Glover and Tameka Watson; his uncles, Craig Ezell, Jr., Regis Roberson, Nyhum Maddox, and Marvin Watson; his aunts, Tyia Ezell, Samantha Ridley, S. Watson, Asia Waldon, and Alexis Fretwell; and tons of cousins, friends, and family.
