

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.

I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.

So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea,

As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity,

Remember me.

Remember me in your heart:

Your thoughts, and your memories,

Of the times we loved,

The times we cried,

The times we fought,

The times we laughed.

For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.

Obituary

Clarence Oliver Woods was born on November 3, 1951, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Clarence and Mildred Woods. He departed this life on Saturday, February 22, 2025, at The Jewish Hospital, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Clarence, affectionately known as "Pee-wee" or "Lance", loved life. He was always the life of any social gathering, walking around smiling, joking, and laughing with everyone. His favorite hobbies were traveling, listening to music, and watching court TV shows. Clarence also had a love for cars, which showed because his was always clean and shining. But what he cherished most was his sons, whom he loved unconditionally.

Clarence was preceded in death by his parents: Clarence and Mildred Woods, and two sisters: Elizabeth Brazile-Cornelison and Lucille Johnson.

He leaves to cherish his memory four sons: Lance Shelborne, Lawrence Shelborne, Malik Woods, and Shaquille Woods, all of Cincinnati, Ohio; one sister, Marguerite Ham-Letcher (William) of Cincinnati, Ohio; twelve (12) grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
