

Our Superman

Not all heroes wear a cape,
Some punch a clock each day,
Like Dad, who worked at UPS,
Providing in every way.
With steady hands and open heart,
He carried more than loads,
He carried us through life itself,
And lightened all our roads.
He made us laugh, he made us strong,
He taught us how to stand,
With wisdom, love, and quiet might,
Our lives held in his hands.
To us, he was our Superman,
Though he never had to fly,
His strength was in his spirit,

His love will never die.

Now heaven holds my hero close,
But his legacy lives on,
Our Superman forevermore,
His memory still strong.

God Made A Father

God once made a father his best one of all he was smart loving and determined to come when his kids called This father could be serious he would sometimes get mad but he was forgiving when you did something bad This father could be silly he would tell many jokes he could be quite annoying when he gave tickles and pokes God gave him to someone but who could it be?

This very lucky person turned out to be me.

Obituary

Darryl Glen Hughes, Sr., age 65, of Sharonville, Ohio, passed away peacefully on August 8, 2025.

Born in Lincoln Heights, Ohio, Darryl was the beloved son of the late Louise and Lucious Hughes. He was a devoted father, grandfather, brother, and friend who touched many lives with his humor, kindness, and love of family.

Darryl was a proud graduate with two Associate Degrees in Information Technology studies and worked faithfully for 28 years at UPS, where he built lasting friendships he cherished deeply.

In his free time, Darryl found joy in spending time with his twin sister, Darlene. He especially loved taking his children and grandchildren to the movies, where they shared countless memories watching Marvel and DC films together – comparing them to the comic books he had collected over the years.

Darryl will be forever remembered by his children, Creshaunda, Darylsha, and Darryl Jr., and lovingly reunited in Heaven with his son, Darnell. He was a proud grandfather to Baylee, Antonio, Jaron, Brian, Ne'Meko, and Braylen. He was a cherished brother to Doug, Darlene, Marvin, and Ronald, and is reunited in peace with his siblings Cynthia and Eric. He also leaves behind many nieces, nephews, and extended family who will carry his memory in their hearts.

Darryl's legacy is one of love, laughter, dedication, and family – and his presence will be deeply missed by all who knew him.
