The Obituary

Betty Jane London Webb, affectionately known as "Betts" by her family and friends, was born on January 21, 1945, in Parkesburg, Pennsylvania. She peacefully passed away in her sleep on December 15, 2025, at the Phoenix Center in Phoenixville, Pennsylvania.

Betty was the beloved daughter of the late Gertrude Ford and Moultrie L. Toney. She was united in marriage to Vernon Webb, with whom she shared more than 20 years of marriage. Vernon preceded her in death.

Betty devoted over 30 years of dedicated service to Pepperidge Farm, where she built lifelong friendships and was known for her strong work ethic.

She was a woman full of life and style. Betty loved to dress up in fine clothes and jewelry; she was always "sharp." She loved dancing, shopping, and going to the casino. Her smile brightened the room. She had a special love for her Rottweiler dogs, and cherished time spent with family and friends.

Betty was preceded in death by her parents, Gertrude Ford and Moultrie Toney; her husband, Vernon Webb; her sons, Robert "Grump" London and Troy London; her grandson, Rashan London; her sisters, Mona Lisa Ford, Patricia Ford, Dorothy London, Margaret London, Eta London, Tilly London, Margie London; and her brothers, Fred London, Bobby London, Harry London, Jim London, Ron London, Harold Ford, Billy London, Lewis London, Eddie London, and Harold London.

She leaves a treasure of precious memories to her surviving siblings: Michael London (Gloria), Carl London (Judy), Lester London (Carol), Andy London (Gwen), Larry London (Anita), Barry "Hap" London, Ronald Ford, and Joyce London

Her beloved grandchildren: Jonté Dalton, Brittany Jacks, Brandon Jacks, Talia Coleman, Diamond London and Dante Crews; great-grandchildren; special nephews she raised as her own sons, Andrew Scott Sr. (deceased) and Andrew "Buster" Scott Jr., both of whom held a very special place in her heart; nieces, Carletta London and Carla Dixon, whom she cherished and dearly loved; special lifelong friend, Richard Green and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.

Betty leaves a lasting legacy of love, strength, and family devotion that will live on through all who knew her.

Sorrowfully Submitted,
The Family
