Reflections of Her Life

Mrs. Louise English Cochran was born on March 5, 1941, to the late Mary Davis English and Louis English in Richland County, South Carolina. She peacefully departed this earthly life on Friday, July 3, 2026, at AMG Specialty Hospital in Mount Pleasant, South Carolina.

Louise was united in holy matrimony to the late William D. Cochran, with whom she shared many years of love.

She was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. Louise was a remarkable woman of quiet strength, known for her kindness, generosity, and compassionate spirit. Although she was a woman of few words, her actions spoke volumes. She was always caring, giving, and understanding to everyone she met.

At an early age, Louise was baptized and faithfully attended church until her health no longer permitted her to do so. Her faith remained an important part of her life.

Louise worked diligently throughout her life, holding numerous jobs, including employment as a domestic worker. Above all, she was a devoted mother who worked tirelessly to provide for and care for her family. Her unwavering love, strength, and selflessness will forever be remembered by those whose lives she touched.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory her three daughters: Stephanie (Robert) Pope of Rogersville, Tennessee; Bridgette Cochran of Eastover, South Carolina; and Iris (Robert) Cochran of Columbia, South Carolina; eight grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; a special cousin who was like a sister, Rose Thompson of Eastover, South Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and dear friends.

Louise was preceded in death by her parents, Mary Davis English and Louis English; her beloved husband, William D. Cochran; her brother, Harry Lee English; and her grandson, B.J. Capers.

Though she has departed from our sight, Louise's legacy of love, faith, hard work, and devotion to her family will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

Don't Grieve For Me

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,

I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took his hand when I heard his call,

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to work, to play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I've found that peace at the end of the day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah, yes, these things too I will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My Life's been full, I savoured much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free.
