A Poem to Our Mother

When God Made You Our Mom he created you with a plan so full of grace. He saved a certain kind for us to fill a special place. He knew we need your gentle hands, your wisdom, kind and true, so He made a special blueprint and knew exactly what to do. He blessed us with your laughter and with a heart so pure that it taught us how to love and how to help each other endure. Through all our trials and triumphs, your love was a guiding light, a gift from God, a guiding star; forever shining bright. And as we have grown and journeyed, far from the childhood nest, we carry all you've given; we have been so blessed by love. Thank you, God, for our mother, for this precious, constant friend, the greatest gift from heaven, a bond that will not end.

Love Always! Your daughters,
Cawana, Racarra and Nikia

A Poem to Our Sister

*God knew the need for someone
To add humor to our hearts;
Someone who would spice up our lives
With laughter and mischief;
Someone we could run to for special
Comfort and friendship;
Someone whose life would touch ours
In a hundred different ways...
So, God made our sister...
He made Rhonda our rock.
If love could have kept you,
You never would have left us.*

Love Always!
Stacey, Rodney, Tonya
