

Acknowledgement

A most heartfelt thank you and appreciation for your expression of love and support during our time of bereavement. Your comforting words, kind gestures, and presence have been a great source of strength for us.

To all who sent flowers, cards and messages of condolence, or who attended the service, we are profoundly grateful. Your thoughtfulness and compassion have brought us much comfort and peace.

Thank you so much for being there for us, and for honoring the memory of our precious mother. Your support means more to us than words can express.

With heartfelt appreciation & love,
The Warren Family

Though you've left us, you're not gone,
Your smile and spirit still live on,
In every hug, in every laugh,
You've left your mark on everyone's path.

THE LIFE & LEGACY OF

Addie Warren

Addie Lucinda Fuller Warren departed this earthly home and entered into her Savior's arms on Wednesday, September 10, 2025 in Webster, Texas. She was born on May 14, 1927 in Cleburne, Texas. She married Raymon Eugene Warren on August 26, 1946 in Cleburne, Texas. They were married for 60 years at the time of his passing in 2007. Addie was a lifelong member of First Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Cleburne. She worked as a school teacher and bus driver for a number of years, in which she was able to pour into children a multitude of lessons, including those of self-worth, love and value. Addie was known as a "fashionista", always putting her best foot forward. It has been said that she was an excellent cook, talented painter and a lady that you were blessed to know. Her kind spirit and sweet nature will be missed greatly.

Addie was preceded in death by her parents, Oscar and Annie Mae Grant Fuller; husband, Raymon Eugene Warren; grandson, Shelby Eugene Goza; and siblings, Oscar Fuller, Jr., James Fuller, Sr., and Imogene Carter.

Survivors include her daughters, Patricia Ann Goza, Angela D. Wilson & her husband, Homer Wilson, Kim R. Warren, and Kiesha L. Borquez & her husband, Keith Dodds; grandchildren, Morgan Wilson and Asante' D. Warren; great grandchildren, Harper Z. Wilson, Aurora Ray-Sue Warren, Alijah A. Warren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

A Mother's Love

*A mother receives an unsuspecting love at the birth of a child,
Which pierces the heart and rips
the fabric of her being,
That circumferences her mind and engulfs her soul.*

*A love that is larger than life,
greater than time itself.
This kind of love brings an instinct
to protect,
To teach and to show the way.
A love that carries her through her life,*

It teaches her how to speak and never say a word

*How to cry without tears;
How to go on without wanting to;
How to let go at the end;
It gives her peace to know,
That kind of love exists.*
